CHANGES IN DISTRICT AND CHARGE BOUNDARIES

District Boundaries

Take Ocracoke from the New Bern District and put it in the Elizabeth City District.

Charge Boundaries

Durham District

Take Pittsboro church from the Pittsboro Circuit and form Pittsboro Station; thus, Brown's Chapel, Chatham, Hickory Mountain and Pleasant Hill remain as the Pittsboro Circuit.

Take Saxapahaw Church from the Saxapahaw Circuit and form the Saxapahaw Station; thus, Clover Garden, Concord, and Orange Chapel remain as the Saxapahaw Circuit.

Reopen Soapstone church and place with Andrews-Fletchers charge.

Elizabeth City District

Take Mount Elmer from the Creswell charge and place with the Columbia charge.

New Bern District

Form a new charge in East Goldsboro to be called St. Luke church.

Take Board Creek and Salter Path from the Morehead Circuit and place with the Beaufort Circuit.

Take Riverside from the Riverside-Bridgeton charge and make it a station.

Take Garris Chapel and Piney Grove from the Seven Springs charge and form the Garris-Grove charge.

Raleigh District

Take Garner and Ebenezer churches from the Garner Circuit and form the Garner-Ebenezer charge.

Take Elizabeth church from the Four Oaks charge and place with the Garner Circuit.

Divide the City Road-White Memorial charge, making City Road a station.

Place Wesley with White Memorial and form the White Memorial-Wesley charge.

Rocky Mount District

Take Bethlehem church and White Oak Church from the Marvin charge and form the White Oak-Bethlehem charge.

Marvin church thus becomes a station.

Place the newly organized Winstead church with Evansdale and call the charge Evansdale-Winstead charge.

Wilmington District

Take Bolton, Council and Shiloh churches from the Carvers Creek charge and form a new charge to be known as Council charge.

In the Pembroke Parish: Charge the name of Bethel church on the Bethel charge to Ashpole Center church; change the name of Bethel charge to Ashpole Center charge; take Pleasant Grove from the Fairview charge and put it on the Hickory Grove charge; change the name of the Hickory Grove charge to Pleasant Grove charge.

Rules of Order and Procedure for the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Church

I. RULES OF ORDER

1. Robert's Rules of Order shall apply to any situation not covered by these Rules.
2. No member who has the floor may be interrupted except for a breach of order, a misrepresentation, to direct the attention of the Conference to the fact that time has arrived for a special order, or to raise a very urgent question of high privilege.
3. No member shall speak a second time on the same question if any member who has not spoken desires the floor, no more than twice on the same subject under the same motion, nor longer than ten minutes unless his time shall be extended by the Conference, except as provided in Rule 4.
4. When the report of a Committee is under consideration and when all have spoken who desire to do so, or when (and after) the previous question has been ordered, the chairman and/or duly authorized member or members presenting the committee's report (and the minority report if there be one) shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken.
5. A member claiming the floor at any time for what he believes is a very urgent question of high privilege, shall be allowed to indicate briefly the nature of the question, and if it be adjudged by the chair to be such, he may proceed at his pleasure, or until the chairman judges he has exhausted his privilege.
6. Voting shall be by a show of hands unless otherwise ordered by the Conference. A "yea" and "nay" vote, if taken, shall be by signed ballot, which result will be published in the Conference Journal. A count vote may be ordered on call of any member supported by one-fifth of the members present and voting, in which case the delegates shall rise from their seats and stand while they are counted.

II. ORGANIZATION

1. The Secretary: The Secretary of the Annual Conference shall be elected quadrennially at the first session of the Conference after the meeting of the General Conference; and on nominations arising from the floor.
2. Assistant Secretaries: The Secretary shall nominate his assistants and the Conference shall elect.
3. Statisticians: There shall be a Conference Statistician and an Assistant Statistician. The Statistician shall be elected quadrennially at the first session after the meeting of the General Conference. The Assistant Statistician shall be elected annually upon nomination by the Secretary.
4. The Conference Stenographer: The Conference Secretary shall employ the Conference Stenographer.
5. Compensation: The Commission on World Service and Finance shall determine, subject to the approval of the Conference, the compensation given officers for their services and also the method and amount for meeting expenses of said officers. The Conference Treasurer shall pay these amounts.
6. Boards, Commissions, and Committees: The Bishop and his Cabinet shall determine the size of and nominate the members of all Boards, Commissions, and Committees authorized by the General Conference, the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, and this Annual Conference, except in those cases in which the Discipline directs otherwise. The recommendations and nominations shall be subject to the approval of the Conference.

7. The Conference Board of Trustees: The Conference Board of Trustees shall be required to meet at least once a year other than the regular meeting at the session of the Annual Conference.
8. Board Treasurers: All Board Treasurers shall be required to file financial statements, annually, with the reports of their respective Boards. These financial statements shall be published in the Conference Journal.
9. Program Committee: There shall be a Program Committee of the Conference consisting of the resident Bishop, the Conference Secretary, the District Superintendent of the District in which the sessions of the Conference is held, the pastor of the host church, and the Conference Lay Leader. This committee shall determine the compensation and expense for invited speakers; and this shall be paid from the Conference expense fund.
10. Committee on Conference Objectives: There shall be a Conference Quadrennial Committee on Conference Objectives. See Paragraph 651—Question 46, 1948 Discipline.
11. Entertainment Committee: There shall be a Conference Entertainment Committee, composed of three ministers and two laymen. This committee shall be elected at the first session of the Conference following the General Conference, and shall serve for the Quadrennium. This committee shall receive invitations and determine the place and method of entertaining the Conference sessions. The Committee is requested to determine the place of holding the next Conference not later than April 1, if possible.
12. Committee on Memoirs: The Conference Secretary and the District Superintendents shall constitute the Committee on Memoirs. The members of the committee shall be charged with the responsibility of providing for all the details of the memorial service. The Conference Secretary shall be the chairman of this committee.
13. Committee on Daily Minutes: A committee of three members shall be elected each year to examine the daily minutes of the sessions of the Conference and report daily to the Conference.
14. Courtesies and Resolutions: There shall be constituted a Committee on Courtesies and Resolutions, annually, at the first session of the Conference.
15. Committee on Appeals: There shall be appointed, quadrennially, a Committee on Appeals, composed of at least five members, whose duties shall be to hear appeals from the decisions of the several District Boards of Church Location and Building, or any other questions that may properly come before them.
16. American Bible Society: All matters regarding the relation of the Conference to the American Bible Society and its work shall be referred to the Board of Education.

III. REPORTS AND RESOLUTIONS

1. All reports and resolutions presented to the Conference shall be written (typewritten if possible) in triplicate. Two copies shall be in the hands of the Conference Secretary before the report or resolutions shall be read to the Conference for consideration.
2. Any amendment offered to any paper and all motions of more than a single sentence must be in writing and given to the Conference Secretary.

IV. LAY DELEGATES TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

1. Lay delegates, regular or reserve, from the pastoral charges to the Annual Conference shall be elected by the Quarterly Conference at least forty-five days prior to the session of the Annual Conference.
2. Each District Superintendent shall complete the list of lay delegates to the Conference, from his District, at least forty-five days before the Annual Conference session and shall immediately transmit the completed list, in duplicate, to the Conference Secretary.
3. Substitutions for lay delegates to the Annual Conference must be made to the Conference Secretary, in written form, through the District Superintendent of each District.

V. PASTORS' REPORTS TO ANNUAL CONFERENCE AND STATISTICS

1. Each pastor shall complete table I of his annual report to Conference and transmit the same to the Conference Statistician at least two weeks prior to the opening of the Conference.
2. Table II shall be completed and turned in at the time of registration, the first day of Conference.
3. Each table of the report shall be filled out by individual churches with totals for the charge.
4. Table II shall be made out in even dollars only.
5. Tables I and II shall be printed in the Conference Journal only by charges.
6. A third table of individual church reports shall be compiled by the Statistician from the pastors' reports. This table shall be printed in the Conference Journal.

VI. THE CONFERENCE JOURNAL

1. Editor: The Conference Secretary shall be charged with the responsibility of editing and making contracts for publication of the Conference Journal, in keeping with the regulations of the General Conference and of the South-eastern Jurisdictional Conference. The Editor shall have full authority to condense reports, memoirs, and other papers when necessary.
2. One complimentary copy of the Conference Journal shall be sent each of the following: The Conference Claimants, the educational institutions, the General Boards, The Publishing House, the lay members of the Conference Boards. Seven copies shall be sent to each pastor without charge. All other copies shall be sold at $1.00 each, or single copies by mail at $1.10 each.

VII. DISTRICTS

1. The number of Districts shall be seven.
2. A District Conference shall be held annually in each District.
3. Each pastoral charge shall elect annually two lay delegates to the District Conference. These shall be in addition to those named by the Discipline as ex officio members.
4. The District and Associate District Lay Leaders shall be elected annually by the Annual Conference on nomination of the District Superintendents and the Conference Lay Leader.

5. The District Superintendent of each District shall be required to furnish to the Bishop, the Conference Treasurer, and the Conference Statistician, as early in the year as possible, an official copy of the apportionments to the charges for World Service and Conference Benevolences and the amounts accepted by the charges, also the amounts approved by the charges for the several items of ministerial support. The figures furnished the Conference Statistician shall be used by him in making up his report to the Conference. Two of these official copies are to be sent to the secretary of the Commission on World Service and Finance.
6. Each District Superintendent, as early in the year as possible, shall furnish the Bishop, the Conference Treasurer, and the Conference Statistician with a schedule of the salaries of pastors as set by the Quarterly Conferences. The figures furnished by the District Superintendent to the Conference Statistician shall be used by him in making up his report to the Conference.
7. We call attention of the District Superintendents to Paragraph 432 (1) 1948 Discipline and state that we believe that a reasonable time for such consultation, before the appointments are to be read, could not be construed to be less than twenty-four hours.

VIII. AMENDMENTS

1. These rules of order and procedure may be amended by a two-thirds vote on the next day after a proposed amendment has been presented in writing; provided the rule fixing the number of districts may be amended by a majority vote; provided, further, a change in the number of Districts may not be made later than the second morning of the Annual Conference session.

IX. WHEN THE RULES BECOME EFFECTIVE

1. These rules of order and procedure of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall become effective immediately upon passage by the vote of the majority of the Conference.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

November 4, 1950

Part I

We wish to recommend the continuance of Conference support in every way of the "Advance for Christ and His Church."

1. Your commission estimates the following items of expense:

Annual Conference Entertainment Expense	$2,500.00
Conference Minutes	3,000.00
Secretarial Help for Conference Secretary	300.00
Statistician	300.00
Salary to Conference Treasurer's Office	1,200.00
Expense of Treasurer's Office, Audit, Bond, Postage, etc.	1,000.00
Total	$8,300.00

We recommend that from the total collections the Conference Treasurer pay the expenses set up in this section as a preferred claim.

2. We recommend for other causes:

General Administration Fund	$ 4,155.00
Jurisdictional Conference Budget	6,736.00
General World Service	78,651.00
Annual Conference Benevolences	66,485.00
	$156,027.00

Combined Totals of Sections 1 and 2 $164,327.00

3. We recommend the distribution of the sum for Annual Conference Benevolences as follows:

Education—Local Church Division	$16,725.00
Educational Institutions	20,600.00
Board of Missions and Church Extension—For Missions	2,000.00
Church Extension	15,000.00

North Carolina Council of Churches	700.00
Committee on World Peace	150.00
Commission on Town and Country Work: Expense Fund	150.00
Total	$66,485.00

4. The total sum of $164,327.00 is apportioned to the several districts in the following amounts:

Durham	$ 32,980.00
Elizabeth City	15,844.00
Fayetteville	26,133.00
New Bern	20,230.00
Raleigh	26,282.00

Rocky Mount	21,784.00
Wilmington	21,074.00
Total	$164,327.00

We recommend that the distribution of these district apportionments be made to the several charges by the District Superintendents.

5. PAR FOR WORLD SERVICE AND CONFERENCE BENEVOLENCES ACCEPTANCES.

For use in the making of apportionments to charges by District Superintendents we print below the table of PAR.

As the acceptances increase we can do more in the "Advance for Christ and His Church," also, further advances by Conference causes must await increased acceptances. The acceptances are subject to review annually and are not fixed for the quadrennium.

TABLE OF PAR

Salary	PAR	Salary	PAR	Salary	PAR
$6000..60%....	$3600	$4400.....	$1936	$2800.....	$784

4600.....	2116	3000.....	900
4500.....	2025	2900.....	841

Salary in excess of $6,000.00, 60% plus 2 per cent for each $100.00 added. Salary less than $1,500.00 PAR is at the discretion of the charge.

For circuits composed of two or more churches on written application by the pastor and with the approval of the district superintendent, if the circuit is paying above minimum salary without aid from the Minimum Salary Fund (formerly called Sustentation Fund), PAR may be set on the basis of the salary less $500 but not less than for minimum salary $2,400.

Part II

1. EPISCOPAL FUND

The Episcopal Fund as set by General Conference shall be an amount equal to 1½ per cent of the salary of pastor and ministerial assistants for the current year.

2. SALARIES FOR DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

(a) We recommend: That the annual salary of each of the seven District Superintendents shall be set at $5,800, including expenses attendant to his office.

(b) That 5% (five per cent) of a sum equal to the amount estimated for the then current conference year for the salary of the pastor and assistant pastor, if any, of each and every charge in the Conference, be apportioned to each charge, said sum to be remitted to the conference treasurer for payment of District Superintendents' salaries.

3. THE BOARD OF CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS requests an apportionment of an amount equal to 14% of the salary of the pastor and all ministerial assistants.

4. MINISTER'S RETIREMENT FUND requests an appointment of an amount equal to 1% of the pastor's salary.

The items above equal 21¾ per cent of pastor's salary. Based on 1949 salaries, the total raised will approximate $179,872.00.

PART III

1. ORPHANAGE:

We recommend the apportionment to each charge of an amount equal to seven (7) per cent of the total money raised by the charge in the conference year 1946-1947 as reported in our 1947 Journal, less the following five items:

Statistical Table 2-A—Amount paid on Indebtedness including Principal and Interest.

Statistical Table 2-A—Amount paid on Buildings and Improvements.

Statistical Table 2-B—Amount paid Schools and Colleges.

Statistical Table 2-B—Amount paid on Crusade for Christ.

All special gifts for endowment purposes made either to the local church or the orphanage.

All orphanage specials, except that raised by the Woman's Society of Christian Service, are to be credited on the 7 per cent asking.

We further recommend that in order to have the apportionments uniformly calculated that the business manager of the Orphanage have the calculations made for each charge, inform each charge of the amount, and furnish each District Superintendent with a report for his district. Further, that the business manager be authorized to notify each charge quarterly of its credits and balance of apportionment for the conference year.

It is anticipated that exact payment of this apportionment will provide the Orphanage with $124,000.00.

2. MINIMUM SALARY FUND (formerly called Sustentation Fund):

We recommend the apportionment to each charge of 3 per cent of the total money raised as in paragraph 1. It is anticipated that approximate payment of this apportionment will be $53,130.00.

3. HOSPITALS AND HOMES: FOR GOLDEN CROSS AND METHODIST RETIREMENT HOME.

We recommend the apportionment to each charge of 2 per cent of the total money raised as in paragraph 1, or an amount equal to 2/7 of the amount of the Orphanage apportionment to be remitted to the conference treasurer. The total proceeds of this apportionment to be divided equally and paid to treasurers of the Golden Cross Fund and Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. (For the central home for aged in Durham.) Total apportionment, $17,710.00, for each cause.

The local church is urged to observe Mother's Day and to apply the offering toward this twin fund, the total of the apportionment to be provided for by this or other means.

4. COLLEGE SUSTAINING FUND:

We recommend the apportionment to each charge of 3 per cent of the total money raised as in paragraph 1, or an amount equal to 3/7 of the amount of the Orphanage apportionment, to be remitted to the conference treasurer, the matter of distribution among our colleges to be left to the Board of Education.

It is anticipated that approximate payment of this apportionment will amount to $53,130.00.

All payments on unpaid Methodist College Advance pledges which are collected after the 1950 Conference may be applied on this 3% apportionment.

The total apportionments in Part III equal 15% of the total money raised as herein defined, and are estimated to total $265,680.00.

5. COLLEGES' CAPITAL FUNDS

We request that the Board of Education and the Methodist College Foundation use the coming conference year to inform the people of the Conference concerning the facts and issues and needs involved in our Methodist program of Christian higher education in the state; and that on the basis of widespread discussion they formulate a long range program for Christian education at the college level which will command the support of the people. We recommend that any decision as to a special financial campaign for this purpose be deferred until the 1951 session of the North Carolina Conference. Meanwhile, we recommend that the Conference endorse the efforts of the Methodist College Foundation to secure special individual gifts during this year.

And we further recommend that any churches desiring to do so shall have the privilege of making gifts to our colleges during the coming conference year, with the understanding that any such gifts shall be credited to those churches in any financial campaign that may be approved subsequently by the Conference.

6. CAMP DON-LEE BUILDING FUND

We recommend that each pastoral charge accept a goal, toward the completion of construction at Camp Don-Lee, of an amount equal to one-eighth of the acceptance of that charge for World Service and Conference Benevolences for the year 1948-1949. We further recommend that each pastoral charge complete its entire responsibility toward building Camp Don-Lee for this quadrennium by accepting as a goal for the quadrennium an amount equal to $\frac{1}{2}$ (one-half) their acceptance for World Service and Conference Benevolences for 1948-1949, with the option of paying the entire amount in one, two, three, or four years. We request the District Superintendents to submit this plan to each pastoral charge.

Part IV.

1. METHODIST COLLEGE ADVANCE FUND:

We authorize the conference treasurer to accept all Methodist College Advance Funds, which may be remitted to him until all pledges are paid.

2. THE METHODIST COLLEGE FOUNDATION OF NORTH CAROLINA, INCORPORATED:

We recommend that the program of this organization have the hearty support of the Conference, and that the purposes and functions of the Foundation as outlined therein be approved.

3. THE INTER-CONFERENCE COMMISSION ON CHURCH BUILDING AT FAIRMONT CHURCH, RALEIGH, AND COLLEGE PLACE CHURCH, GREENSBORO:

We approve the plans of this commission to solicit funds in a special campaign for the purpose of additional buildings at the above points.

4. WESLEY FOUNDATION:

We recommend approval of the request of the Wesley Foundation for the privilege of soliciting the alumni, parents of the Methodist students, and others who desire to make special gifts for the benefit of the student work in State-supported institutions.

5. STUDENT CENTER AT DUKE UNIVERSITY: We approve the section in the report of the Conference Board of Education looking toward the establishment of a Methodist Student Center at Duke University.

6. SUPPLEMENTARY BUDGET ITEMS:

(a) We recommend that the treasurer be authorized to pay from funds on hand and on approved vouchers any excess in the cost of Conference entertainment above $2,500.00.

(b) Also that the treasurer be authorized to pay from funds on hand the necessary sum for printing and delivery to the local charge of the leaflet promoting World Service if one be issued.

(c) We recommend that the treasurer be authorized to pay from funds on hand the following items:

(1) For the operation of Camp Don-Lee	$ 2,000.00
(2) Board of Education—Local Church Division	2,000.00
(3) Board of Missions and Church Extension—For Church Extension	4,000.00
(4) Wesley Foundation Commission for Chapel Hill ...	200.00
(5) Our Conference Board of Evangelism	1,500.00
(6) Conference Commission on Town and Country Work to defray part of the expenses of as many as three delegates from each of the seven districts of the Conference to the National Methodist Town and Country Conference to be held in Sioux City, Iowa, July 21, 22, 23, 1950	1,050.00
	$10,750.00

Also that at the end of the 1950-1951 conference year we pay out from funds on hand (for use in the construction of buildings to serve Methodist students) to:

(1) College Place Church, Greensboro	$ 5,000.00
(2) Fairmont Church, Raleigh	5,000.00
(3) Board of Education—Local Church Division	2,000.00
(4) Board of Missions—For Church Extension	4,000.00
	<hr/>
Total	$16,000.00

Part VI

Guide for Pastors in Setting Up Budget

1. Part I of report:

World Service and Conference Benevolences to be the ACCEPTANCE as agreed with the District Superintendent.

2. Part II of report:

The four items listed in this section are equal to 21¼ per cent of pastor's salary.

The Episcopal Fund	1¼%
Conference Claimants	14%
Salaries of District Superintendents	5%
Ministers' Retirement Fund	1%

3. Part III of report:

1. Orphanage, same as last year, 7% of Total Money Raised. Remit to the Orphanage.

2. Minimum Salary Fund, 3% of Total Money Raised. This equals 3/7 of Orphanage.

3. Golden Cross and Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., for Central Home for the Aged in Durham (equal parts). 2% of Total Money Raised. This equals 2/7 or Orphanage. This is to be raised as a Special on Mother's Day or by other means.

4. College Sustaining Fund, 3% of Total Money Raised. This equals 3/7 of Orphanage. Items 2, 3, 4, to be remitted to conference treasurer, C. A. Dillon.

That the treasurers of each board or commission pay their pro-rata share of the cost, and that the bond be kept by the President of this Commission.

Respectfully submitted,

GURNEY P. HOOD, President

MARVIN J. COWELL, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

The missionary task of the church is to evangelize the world. This is clearly the responsibility Jesus laid upon the disciples when he said, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." He itemized and re-emphasized that responsibility when he said "Ye shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem, Judea, Samaria, and unto the uttermost parts of the earth." We are glad to note the interest shown by many of the churches in accepting mission specials in the Advance for Christ and His church. But we realize that our larger vision of missionary activity around the world will be stimulated only by keeping the fires burning brightly in the hearts of our people and on the altars of our local churches. We rejoice, therefore, to note the splendid activity manifested in missionary evangelism throughout the bounds of our Conference. Under the guidance of Almighty God, we have had a great year. Some $51,000 have been contributed for this purpose during the past year. This is over and above our regular world service giving.

The Conference, through this board, has contributed almost $20,000 to aid in constructing churches and parsonages; $4,000 to other mission causes; $31,000 to supplement pastors' salaries. We have received into the churches nearly 5,000 members on profession of faith.

We are deeply grateful for the generosity of people which has made possible the assistance the board has been able to render in various building programs, and we would urge those churches and parsonages which can meet their full financial obligations in building, to do so, thereby making it possible for this board to assist in purely mission projects. There has been a tendency on the part of some to feel they are entitled to help from the Board of Missions and Church Extension simply because they have been contributing to the fund through the years. But this is not in keeping with the real spirit of missions. There has been great activity in building through the year. Many churches and parsonages have been constructed. The board has been able to assist in the construction of seven new parsonages, and seventeen new churches. This is not to mention the large number which have financed their own projects. The Conference is now blessed with better parsonages and houses of worship than at any other time in its history. For this we are grateful.

We are happy to report the establishment of three new church organizations. One in Goldsboro, one near Dunn, and the Wesley church in Henderson. The board is happy to have contributed liberally to each of these projects. They came into existence through the interest and activity of the St. Pauls Church, Goldsboro, the Divine Street Church, Dunn, and the City Road-White Memorial churches, Henderson. We commend these churches for their local missionary activity, and suggest that other pastors and churches explore the possibility of establishing new churches in their immediate territory.

Our conference missionary secretary, Rev. Leon Russell, has again planned a series of missionary institutes for the early part of the year, and we bespeak the full co-operation of all our people. The dates are as follows:

Durham, January 29; Rocky Mount, January 30; New Bern, January 30; Elizabeth City, January 31; Wilmington, February 1; Fayetteville, February 2; Raleigh, February 2.

We commend the Mission Study Book, "The Methodists of the World," by Bishop Ivan Lee Holt, and hope it will receive wide distribution throughout the Conference. The missionary secretaries of the various districts have done a good job and deserve the commendation and cooperation of pastors and churches alike.

The board is glad to report that through the increased giving to the minimum salary fund it is possible to raise the salary level of our Conference. At the suggestion of the Commission on Town and Country, therefore, we recommend that the minimum salary scale for the ensuing year be as follows for those giving full-time service:

Single men	$2,200.00
Married men without children	2,400.00
Married men with children	2,600.00

We recommend that the month of January be set aside as "Good Literature Month," and that proper emphasis be given to all the publications of our church, with special efforts to increase the number of subscribers of the N. C. Christian Advocate and World Outlook.

We are especially happy to have had a part in the Youth Caravan to Germany during the past summer. We feel sure, from reports which have come to us from these young people, that this was a very worthwhile project in establishing better understanding and promoting the cause of Christ in the world.

We recommend the re-election of Rev. Leon Russell as conference missionary secretary, and Revs. R. W. Bradshaw and M. T. Plyler to succeed themselves as members of the Board of Managers of the N. C. Pastors' School.

As we view the situation, we have every reason to believe that the missionary zeal and activity of our Conference is at high tide. For this we are grateful to God. Let us devoutly pray that our spiritual temperature may keep pace with our material concern.

A list of the appropriations, and a copy of the treasurer's report are attached hereto.

REPORT NO. 1—BOARD OF EDUCATION

Our educational institutions express appreciation for the increased interest and support which the Conference is giving them. Still further increases are needed if they are to be enabled to maintain "educational respectability" and worthily represent The Methodist Church in North Carolina.

Greensboro College: During the scholastic year, ending May 29, 1950, the construction of two new buildings was begun—library and science buildings. These, soon to be completed, will give the college two units most vital to effective teaching and will enable it to offer scholastic advantages never before available at Greensboro College. These will be furnished with modern equipment. Progress was made in obtaining additional funds for these and other structures necessary to complete the minimum building needs. Approximately $600,000 remain to be raised.

A total of 361 students representing thirteen states and China composed the student body. North Carolina furnished 86½ per cent of the total. Thirteen denominations were represented, Methodists leading with 77 per cent.

The College has been authorized to amend its charter so as to increase the number of trustees from 18 to 24.

The statistics for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1950, are as follows: Officers and teachers, 49; students enrolled, 361; value of property, $756,221.29 (not including two buildings under construction); endowment, $648,144.10; no indebtedness.

Additional revenue is greatly needed for operational purposes and for necessary additional buildings.

Louisburg College: The statistics are: Officers and teachers, 24; students enrolled, 219; value of property (not including gymnasium), $449,601; endowment, $146,907; indebtedness, none. The gymnasium, the construction of which is almost completed, should be in use soon.

The number of students receiving financial assistance has greatly increased. The present enrollment shows that 41.18% of the students are receiving financial assistance totaling $11,402.50.

The faculty is now one of the best for some years. The salary scale is still below the present for the public school teachers of North Carolina, despite the fact that the present faculty and administrative staffs are receiving $5,498 more than they received in 1949-50. This sum now is $2,047 below the amount they would receive at a minimum as public school teachers of North Carolina. Indications are that public school salaries in this State will be increased during the present session, and this would place the College much lower than the North Carolina scale. To meet the minimum salary to be adopted by the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges the College will need $1,108 added to the present salaries of the staff.

Because the rates of Louisburg College are kept at a minimum, the funds needed for financial assistance to worthy students and increases in salaries must come from some other source. The only sources available are private gifts and the Church. Private gifts for current support are difficult to obtain because the usual benefactor desires his gift to have some permanency. This leaves only the Church to support the current operations of the College. The amount needed for student aid, salary increases, and to bring salary to Southern Association minimum would be $18,008.50.

Care has been taken of the grounds and plant of the College. The cafeteria and apartment buildings have been painted on the exterior, and the interior of Franklin Building has been painted, part of it for the first time.

The board of trustees has decided that the operation of the college farm is impractical, and is asking for permission to sell the farm. Permission is also requested for the granting of an easement to the Carolina Light and Power Company across bottom land, known as the Knight Property, owned by the College.

High Point College: The enrollment for the year ending May 31, 1950, was as follows: Summer School, 498; Extension, 75; Regular Session, 748; total of different enrollments, 1,321. Of the enrollment in the regular session, 93 per cent of the students were from North Carolina. Of this group, 47 per cent were Methodist students. Other figures are: Faculty members, 45; ministerial students, 40; children of ministers, 19; children from orphanages, 13; girls majoring in religious education, 30; concessions to these groups, $7,719.71; value of land, buildings, and equipment, $933,031.51; endowment fund, $517,983.91; increase of $70,748.75 during last year; long-term indebtedness, none; current payables, $21,856.29, a decrease during the year of $26,442.96. During the fiscal year the College operated at a net surplus of $21,552.89 compared with a net loss of $12,772.13 during the previous year.

The College respectfully renews its request to the Conference to help make it possible, through increased appropriations, for it to be accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. The Association has recently raised the minimum requirements above the present requirements to the point where the present appropriations from the Conferences plus 2% sustaining funds will not be adequate to make it possible for High Point College to qualify. The charter for the College has been amended so as to bring about a closer relation between the two conferences and the College. The main provisions in the amendments provide (1) that the College board of trustees hold and operate the College in trust for the two conferences and (2) that the two conferences have greater responsibility and authority in confirming the members of the board.

Duke University: Statistics for the year ended June 30, 1950: Number of students for the academic year 1949-50, 5,548; number of students for Summer School 1949, 1,515; officers and teachers, not including assistants, 564; assets, $61,509,243.69; value of expendable special funds, $1,511,723.82; value of endowed special funds, $446,874.62; value of scholarship funds, $903,404.80; value of loan funds, $497,321.66; value of agency funds, included in total assets item, $371,625.72.

REPORT NO. 2—BOARD OF EDUCATION

The board is glad to note that progress has been made in children's work, vacation church schools, and in leadership education. Increased attendance in the intermediate camps and youth assemblies has been gratifying: 638 were enrolled in the youth assemblies at Louisburg College and 738 intermediates attended Camp Don-Lee; 30,956 children were enrolled in vacation church schools; 77 leadership schools and classes were held during the year with an enrollment of 1,067; 3,615 church school members joined the church on profession of faith. We have 762 church schools with an enrollment of 113,983, an increase in enrollment over last year of 4,924.

The young adult program and the new venture in family life education are meeting with encouraging response.

We deeply appreciate the splendid work that has been done by the members of the staff during the past year. All of us have been deeply saddened by the death of our Executive Secretary, Rev. J. G. Phillips. During his tenure of service he gave himself without reserve to the cause of Christian education. The memory of his devotion will be a challenge to all of us to realize the ideal for which he labored so unceasingly.

We pledge our cooperation to the new Executive Secretary, Rev. C. P. Morris, and all the members of his staff.

Recommendations for the Year 1950-1951

1. The continued emphasis upon the fourth Sunday as missionary day.
2. Increased emphasis upon leadership education.
3. Acceptance of Camp Don-Lee apportionment by every church and payment as soon as possible.
4. Christmas offering for Camp Don-Lee to be applied on apportionment.
5. Observance of Race Relations Day the second Sunday in February or as near thereto as possible, with offering to go to Paine College.

6. We recommend appointments, as follows: Rev. C. P. Morris, Executive Secretary; Rev. Curt Gatlin, Director of Youth Work; Rev. J. T. Greene, Director of Family Life Education.

7. We recommend that Rev. R. Grady Dawson and Dr. C. E. Jordan be elected members of Board of Managers of Pastors' School.

The following persons have been elected by the Board: John M. Meares, Director of Adult Work; and Mrs. Kitty Cline Cox, Director of Children's Work and Office Secretary.

REPORT NO. 5—BOARD OF EDUCATION

Report of Sub-Committee on Leadership Education

Recognizing that the preponderance of Christian education must take place in the local church and that the burden of leadership in the most crucial point of our church's program of education must fall upon officers and teachers in the local church, and being further cognizant of the fact that our Conference has lagged far behind in the matter of training leadership for church schools, we most urgently recommend the following program of leadership education:

1. That a district committee of leadership education be established in each district, composed of the district directors of adult work, youth work, children's work, evangelism, and the missionary secretary, district lay leader, district secretary of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and the district superintendent. The chairman of this committee, who is to be district director of general church work, shall be recommended by the Executive Secretary of the Board of Education, and appointed by the district superintendent.

(a) It is suggested that the district superintendent appoint these district directors of general church school work during the session of the Annual Conference and request them to convene the district committee before the district set-up meetings.

(b) It shall be the responsibility of the district committee on leadership education to:

(1) Plan an accredited leadership school in each sub-district.

(2) Encourage each pastor and qualified persons in the district to become certified to teach at least one leadership course.

3. Encourage each local church board of education to develop an adequate program of discovering, enlisting, and training new workers.

4. That a two-day seminar be held some time during the month of November for the training of district directors of leadership education and district superintendents. The Executive Secretary of the Board of Education is requested to make the necessary arrangements.

REPORT OF THE WESLEY FOUNDATION COMMISSION

Our first word is one of grief and sorrow. Last May Rev. J. G. Phillips, Executive Secretary of the North Carolina Conference Board of Education, who has been a member and Secretary-Treasurer of our Commission since its organization, died under heart-breaking circumstances. We gratefully record our debt to him for his long and faithful service, and our prayerful sympathy for his wife and children.

Our Commission has labored earnestly to carry on the work at the several units of the University of North Carolina, at Duke University, and at other colleges in the state, with which we have been charged. We believe our work and the students concerned recognize the debt we all owe to the directors at the various Wesley Foundations. These directors have furnished extraordinarily good leadership.

We have not had a regularly employed Director of Methodist Student Work since the resignation of Troy Barrett a year ago. A Student Conference was promoted and held under volunteer leadership, and was quite successful, this being held in April at West Market Street Church, Greensboro. We propose to continue this or a similar arrangement for the academic year 1950-51.

We request an appropriation from the two conferences, and from each conference, identical in amount with that asked for and received the conference year now closing.

The Treasurer's report, together with an itemized list of proposed appropriations for 1950-51, is presented herewith.

Our Commission wishes to assure the two supporting annual conferences of our earnest and continuing desire and will to serve both the conferences and the young Methodists in our colleges and universities.

We trust that approval will be granted to the so-called "Five Dollar Plan," as set forth in our report to the North Carolina Conference last year, but not presented a year ago to the Western North Carolina Conference. The pertinent paragraph is as follows:

In order to provide more adequate support for student work at the institutions where the Methodist program is supported by the Wesley Foundation Commission (University of North Carolina, North Carolina State College, Woman's College, Duke University, and East Carolina Teachers College), we recommend adoption of the "five dollar plan," which is already being operated successfully in several annual conferences. According to the plan each local church is asked to contribute from its budget, or other sources, an amount of $5.00 for each of its students attending one of the institutions named above. Funds would be sent directly to the treasurers of the respective Wesley Foundations at the state institutions, and to the treasurer of the Methodist Student Fellowship at Duke University.

It is our earnest hope that the two supporting conferences will continue and in the future be able to increase and strengthen the program for our Methodist students in the colleges and universities of North Carolina.

Respectfully submitted,

W. A. STANBURY, Chairman
C. S. HUBBARD, Vice-chairman
JOHN W. CELL, Treasurer

REPORT NO. 1—BOARD OF CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS

In answer to Question No. 13, "What Methodist Institutions or Organizations are approved by the Conference for Annuity Responsibility?" your Board of Conference Claimants recommends that The Methodist Orphanage and the North Carolina Christian Advocate be recommended with annuity subject to Discipline Paragraph 1623, section 5A, with the further recommendation that L. C. Larkin be appointed to the Orphanage and C. W. Robbins to the North Carolina Christian Advocate with annuity subject to Paragraph 1623, section 8A, and that Brooks Patten be appointed with annuity, Director Wesleyan Foundation, and that W. K. Barrs, Chaplain Veterans Administration; W. R. Andrews, Chaplain U. S. Army; H. C. Frazer, Chaplain U. S. Army; M. O. Stephenson, Chaplain U. S. Navy; N. L. Jones, Director Wesley Foundation, Alabama Polytechnic Institute; C. D. Nelson, Secretary, Y. M. C. A.; R. D. Wellons, President Pembroke College, be appointed without annuity.

The following to be appointed with annuity claim upon the General Boards or Institutions or Agencies of The Methodist Church: M. E. Cunningham, H. E. Spence, H. E. Myers, J. J. Rudin, R. L. Dicks, E. D. C. Brewer, F. M. Patterson and C. E. Hix, Jr.

That A. D. Leon Gray be appointed to the Oxford Orphanage without annuity as we have no authority in his case.

Respectfully submitted,

J. A. STATON, Chairman
JAMES F. COUSINS, Treasurer
L. T. SINGLETON, Secretary

REPORT NO. 2—BOARD OF CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS

It gives us great pleasure to report that we are able to continue our annuity rate at $35.00 for the retired men and $24.50 for the widows. We wish to express our appreciation to Dr. J. W. Crichlow from the General Board of Pensions for his presence and great help in planning our work.

The following claimants have died during the year:

Rev. H. S. B. Thompson, Mrs. J. E. Blalock, Rev. B. H. Houston, Mrs. M. Bradshaw, Rev. L. B. Jones, Mrs. N. L. Seabolt, Mrs. M. D. Hix, Rev. W. J. Watson, Mrs. M. A. Smith, and Mrs. R. E. Pittman. Mrs. C. A. Johnson has remarried.

The books of the Treasurer of the Board of Conference Claimants and the Secretary-Treasurer of the Ministers' Retirement Fund have been audited by a certified accountant and his report is filed with this report.

With this report the Secretary of the Board closes a term of twenty-five years. It has been a service of genuine pleasure and I retire with sincere regrets. Yet with a feeling of satisfaction that I have had a part in seeing this work grow from a mere pittance to the present sum. I wish for my successor the hearty support, both of the Board and the Conference at large.

We nominate John M. Dozier, 2111 Ruffin St., Durham, N. C., as Secretary and Treasurer of the Ministers' Retirement Fund at a salary of $500.00.

Respectfully submitted,

J. A. STATON, Chairman
JAMES F. COUSINS, Treasurer
L. T. SINGLETON, Secretary

REPORT NO. 3—BOARD OF CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS

For the support of the superannuates, their wives and dependent children, your Board recommends that an amount equal to fourteen per cent of the salaries paid to all the pastors, and the clerical assistants who are members of the North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, be assessed against all charges of said Conference and be sent to the Conference Treasurer who shall administer the same as provided in the Discipline.

J. A. STATON, Chairman
JAMES F. COUSINS, Treasurer
L. T. SINGLETON, Secretary

REPORT NO. 4—BOARD OF CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS

Amendment to the Ministers' Retirement Fund

We recommend that the last sentence of section two (2) of the amendment starting on page 91 of the 1946 Conference Journal reading: "These dividends shall be invested and any income from the investment shall be applied to the General Reserve Fund," be amended to read as follows: "These Reserve Dividends (now known as the Dividend Fund) shall be invested and any income from their investment and the investment of the General Reserve Fund shall be added to the current collections (now known as the Current Fund) and included in the balance available for crediting to members' accounts as dividends as provided for in the section referred to above in the 1946 Conference Journal.

Report of Treasurer—Board of Conference Claimants

Mr. James F. Cousins, Treasurer
N. C. Conference Board of Conference Claimants
Durham, North Carolina

Dear Mr. Cousins:

In accordance with your instructions, we have checked the records of the Board of Conference Claimants for the period from November 1, 1949, through October 31, 1950.

The balance shown in the checking account was verified by reconciliation of the statement furnished by the Fidelity Bank. All recorded receipts were traced into the depository and disbursements were verified by inspection of cancelled checks.

Savings account and other investments were verified by inspection of the saving account and of the paid up share certificates.

Based upon the examination made, it is our opinion that the financial transactions of the Board of Conference Claimants for the year ended October 31, 1950, and the balances shown on hand at that date are correct.

Respectfully submitted,

TREASURER'S REPORT MINISTERS' RETIREMENT FUND

Mr. James F. Cousins, Treasurer
Ministers' Retirement Fund

Dear Mr. Cousins:

We have made an examination of the Cash Receipts and Disbursements of the Ministers Retirement Fund for the Conference Year 1949-50, ending November 30, 1950, and submit, herewith, our statement of receipts and disbursements for that period.

All recorded cash receipts were traced into the bank account and all disbursements were verified by examination of cancelled checks. Cash in the Fidelity Bank, Durham, North Carolina, on November 30, 1950, was verified by reconciliation of the statement furnished by the bank. Investments in Building and Loan Stock and U. S. Savings Bonds were verified by inspection. First mortgage loans were verified by correspondence with the Church Treasurers.

The attached statement showing payments to the Ministers' Retirement Fund by individuals and by charges was verified by a check to the individual accounts.

Based upon the examination made, it is our opinion that the attached cash receipts and disbursements statement show correctly the financial transactions of the Ministers' Retirement Fund for the year 1949-50 and that the balance as shown on November 30, 1950, is correct,

Respectfully submitted,

ASHLIN, THOMAS AND KNIGHT

By ARTHUR W. KNIGHT, Certified Public Accountant

REPORT NO. 1—BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

During the past year, your Board of Lay Activities has recognized its obligation to the Advance for Christ and His Church as the special program of our great Methodist Church. The concept of eight million Methodists moving forward, slowly perhaps, yet with a deep-seated determination to press toward the goal, was been and is an inspiration.

It has been our intention not to lessen the attention given any phase of the regular activities of the church. Thus we have continued to stress the responsibilities of true stewardship and the vital spiritual values to be attained by definite ordered tithing of income.

Once again we can report a wide observance of Laymen's Day and, more important, we can report that very definite benefits from this program are beginning to show in other areas of the work of the church. Our annual Retreat was held at Louisburg College on June 17 and 18 with a record attendance. The Board of Lay Activities believes most strongly that wider information on the various phases of the church program inevitably results in greater interest.

We set our goals for the coming year:

1. Continuing emphasis on the Advance for Christ and His Church with special care to be given to wider knowledge of our church organizations.
2. Increasing the number of organized Methodist Men's Clubs.
3. Every church on every charge in the Conference observing Laymen's Day.
4. Continuation of efforts to reach the goal of not more than three churches on any one charge.
5. Holding an Annual Conference-wide Laymen's Retreat and also District-wide Laymen's Retreat.
6. Betterment of local church financing and adequate support and security for our ministers.

Respectfully submitted,

W. J. SMITH, Chairman

SAM B. UNDERWOOD, Jr., Secretary

REPORT NO. 2—BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

The Board of Lay Activities nominates as officers for the coming year the following:

Chairman W. Jasper Smith
 Vice-Chairman B. G. Childs
 Secretary Sam B. Underwood, Jr.
 Treasurer Sam W. Ruark
 Executive Committee: W. V. Westmoreland and the above named officers, together with the District Superintendent of the Rocky Mount District..

Respectfully submitted,

W. J. SMITH, Chairman

TREASURER'S REPORT—BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

W. W. Peele, Resident Bishop
 The Methodist Church
 Southeastern Jurisdiction
 Richmond, Virginia

We have examined the attached statement of cash receipts and disbursements of Samuel W. Ruark, Treasurer, North Carolina Conference Board of Lay Activities of The Methodist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina, for the year ended October 31, 1950.

We have found the receipts properly deposited with the Security National Bank, Raleigh, North Carolina, and the disbursements properly supported by documentary evidence. In our opinion, the attached statement of cash receipts and disbursements correctly reports the cash transactions for the year ended October 31, 1950.

REPORT NO. 1—BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES

The chief business of the Board of Hospitals and Homes this year was administering and expediting the revised Golden Cross policies and plans approved by the 1949 session of the North Carolina Conference. We recognize that Methodist Retirement Homes is an integral part of the interest of our board, and will endeavor to promote both Golden Cross and Methodist Retirement Homes in the year ahead.

The Board met in business session four times during the year. One of the meetings (February) was held jointly with the District Golden Cross Committees. All districts were represented by their chairmen, and four districts were in full attendance. Full understanding was reached relating to the work of the Board and the District Committee in making Golden Cross an effective instrument in aiding the needy sick.

All pastors of the N. C. Conference were mailed personal copies of the Board of Hospitals and Homes' report adopted by the 1949 session of the Annual Conference. The Board hopes this will prove valuable as an additional source of information to the individual pastor. The Board also prepared standard Golden Cross approval application forms for use by the District Committees and pastors.

Five thousand dollars was authorized withdrawn from surplus invested funds, that the program of Golden Cross be completed without curtailment this Conference year.

Members of our board attended both the General and Jurisdictional sessions of the Board of Hospitals and Homes.

Using the $600 authorized by the last Annual Conference, the board employed a summer chaplain to serve in Duke Hospital this year. This chaplain, E. J. Bauer, made 432 planned calls. Besides the direct value of these visits, the summer program taught us much concerning the spiritual and physical care of the sick, through a cooperative effort of minister and hospital.

Recommendations

We recommend that Golden Cross policies approved by the 1949 session of this Annual Conference be continued.

We further recommend that the board be authorized to appropriate $800 for its hospital chaplaincy program this coming year. This will enable us, with additional outside funds already secured, to place a year-round chaplaincy program in Duke Hospital.

We note as a matter of information that our board is requesting the Commission on World Service and Finance to recommend that the joint appropriation for Golden Cross and Methodist Retirement Homes for the coming year be set at 3% of the total money raised in the charge in the year 1946-47 (less the standard deductions); or 3/7 of the orphanage apportionment.

REPORT NO. 2—BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMESMethodist Orphanage Recommendations

We Recommend:

(1) That the Reverend Leon C. Larkin continue as Superintendent of the Orphanage, having been duly elected by the Board of Trustees.

(2) That the Orphanage apportionment remain same as last year.

(3) That as much of the apportionment as possible be raised early in the Conference year, preferably at the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons.

(4) That the following persons, having been nominated as trustees of the Orphanage, the Conference elect them for the terms expiring as follows:

Mrs. J. H. Cutchin—Term to expire in 1951.

Rev. Leon Russell—Term to expire in 1951.

Guy E. Barnes—Term to expire in 1955.

TREASURER'S REPORT—N. C. BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES

October 16, 1950.

To Whom it May Concern:

I have made an examination of the records of the N. C. Board of Hospitals & Homes, Inc., of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church and in my opinion the attached statement of operations fairly presents the financial position of the N. C. Board of Hospitals & Homes at October 16, 1950, and its operations for the period March 2, 1950, to October 16, 1950.

The scope of my audit consisted of a detailed examination of all items of receipts and disbursements for the period under review.

October 16, 1950

To Whom It May Concern:

I have made an examination of the records of the Golden Cross Fund of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church and in my opinion the attached statement of operations fairly presents the financial position of the Golden Cross Fund at October 16, 1950, and its operations for the period November 1, 1949, to October 16, 1950.

The scope of my audit consisted of a detailed examination of all items of receipts and disbursements for the period under review.

Yours very truly,

D. R. GRAHAM

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM

"Our Church," being the second emphasis in the Advance for Christ and His Church, calls for a mighty Evangelistic Advance. It is now our responsibility as ministers and laymen to revive an interest in, and a concern for, the Christianizing of the unsaved and the unchurched for whom we are responsible. We should experience a concern for the person who has not yet found Jesus Christ as personal Saviour and Lord—refusing to be satisfied with transferring church members from one church to another, as important as that may be in many instances.

If our church is to make an Evangelistic Advance, much preparation should be made through prayer and the faithful reading of the Scriptures. We have been too busy to pray and to prepare our hearts for a spiritual advance. Therefore, too often our motives have not been spiritualized. Martin Luther wrote the following in his Journal one morning: "I have so much to do today that I shall not be able to get through it with less than three hours of prayer." Had this not been true of Martin Luther it would have been necessary for God to have found another man to lead in the Protestant Reformation. In those days it cost something to be a Christian.

Your Board of Evangelism would like earnestly to request your cooperation in the following objectives during the conference year 1950-51.

1. That we call our people to earnest prayer. Nothing less than this will make us worthy servants of Him of whom it was written: "When he saw the multitudes he was moved with compassion." Until we experience a like compassion we will continue to make excuses for our lack of interest in evangelism.

2. District Prayer Retreats for ministers as early in the conference year as District Superintendents and District Secretaries of Evangelism can arrange for them. We earnestly request that these retreats be limited to prayer, heart-searching and rededication.

3. The months of January and February be set apart for religious surveys in an honest effort to locate and contact, in an effort to win to Christ and His Church, all the unchurched in those communities for which we are responsible.

4. The month of March to be dedicated conscientiously to the reenlistment of all the inactive members of our churches. An inactive church member may be more important to the influence of the church than one who has not yet received the vows of church membership. They have been neglected for too long a time.

5. Throughout the conference year each pastor is urged to lead and work with his people to employ that method, or those methods of evangelism which in his judgment, and in their judgment, have been and promise to be the most effective and fruitful in winning people for Christ and His Church. Our pastors are reminded of their own personal responsibilities required by the 1948 edition of the Methodist Discipline, paragraphs 121 and 123.

6. Cooperation with the General Board of Evangelism in the Camp Meeting at Lake Junaluska, June 24-July 8, 1951.

7. We recommend that the District Directors of Evangelism be made regular members of the Conference Board of Evangelism.

We recommend that Howard P. Powell be appointed as Conference Secretary of Evangelism, without salary.

9. We pledge cooperation with the W. S. C. S. in all their spiritual objectives.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TEMPERANCE

The North Carolina Methodist Conference, in session in Kinston, November 4, 1950, reaffirms its opposition to the manufacture, sale and use of all alcoholic beverages and deplores the tragic fact that since the repeal of National Prohibition in 1933 and particularly since the legalization of liquor sales in certain areas in North Carolina in 1935, there has been a continuing increase in the sale of alcoholic beverages and there has been a continuing increase in drinking, drunkenness, and the many evils that are caused by liquor.

This Conference reaffirms its endorsement of the Allied Church League, that has been organized by the churches of North Carolina for the purpose of combatting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors; and we urge all pastors and other church leaders and church members throughout our Conference to give full cooperation and support to the program and work of the Allied Church League.

This Conference commends the helpful work that is being accomplished by Alcoholics Anonymous, and we urge our pastors and members to support that organization in the splendid work that it is accomplishing in the redemption and rehabilitation of many victims of strong drink.

Though we believe strongly in the value of education and salvation in promoting sobriety and righteousness, we appreciate the need and value of appropriate legislation in our efforts to combat the evils of the liquor traffic. Consequently, this Conference urges the 1951 General Assembly of North Carolina to enact the following legislation:

1. Since the citizens of our State voted overwhelmingly against liquor in 1908 and also in 1933, and since, therefore, legislation of liquor sales in our State was enacted contrary to the expressed will of our people, we urge the 1951 General Assembly to enact a statute to prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors throughout North Carolina; and, if the General Assembly be in doubt with respect to the wishes of the citizens of this State, we urge the 1951 General Assembly to enact a statute providing for a state-wide referendum on the issue of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors in this State.

2 Since the purpose of advertising any merchandise is to increase its sale and use, we urge the 1951 General Assembly to enact a statute to prohibit the advertisement of all alcoholic beverages in newspapers or other publications, published in North Carolina, and to prohibit such advertisements on billboards on the highways and in all other places in our State.

3. Since a large majority of the counties in our State have demonstrated their opposition to the sale of intoxicating liquors, the 1951 General Assembly is urged to repeal the "gallon law" that legalizes and permits the shipment and transportation of whiskey to the extent of one gallon into dry counties. As a simple matter of common decency and fair government, neither the State of North Carolina nor the United States Government should permit whiskey to be shipped or otherwise transported into counties in which the legal sale of intoxicants is not permitted.

4. As a means of improving instruction regarding the evils of alcoholic beverages, the 1951 General Assembly is urged to appropriate for the State Department of Public Instruction ample funds to provide for the employment of a competent person to supervise effective instruction in the public schools of the State regarding the evils of alcoholic beverages.

5. Since motor vehicle accidents on our highways are increasing to alarming proportions and since a large percent of these highway accidents are caused by liquor drinking, the General Assembly is urged to enact drastic legislation against drunken driving. If a statute were enacted, requiring the imposition of a substantial prison sentence on every defendant found guilty of drunken driving, the enforcement of such legislation would decrease and almost stop completely this evil that is causing slaughter and death on our highways.

In order to aid in the program of alcoholic education, we urge all pastors to preach often in behalf of total abstinence and we urge that the subject of temperance be given a prominent place in the program of every District Conference and in all other conferences and meetings of our church. Also we urge that study classes be conducted in our Sunday schools and in our church organizations; that literature and posters be obtained from our General Board of Temperance for use in Sunday schools and churches; that every Sunday school and church in our Conference observe Commitment Day that is promoted and sponsored each year by our General Board of Temperance; that each church have a temperance committee charged with the responsibility of promoting temperance education in their respective churches and Sunday schools; and that each District Superintendent appoint a District Temperance Committee, charged with the responsibility of selecting, training, and making available suitable temperance speakers and charged with the responsibility of promoting temperance education and other work in their respective districts.

This Conference appeals to all pastors and all church members that they make effective the opposition of The Methodist Church to this nefarious business. The liquor traffic would destroy the church, if it could; the church could destroy the liquor traffic, if it would. Hence, every person, who is interested in the church, should use his influence, his means, and his vote, against the liquor traffic. Any person, who drinks liquor, or votes to legalize liquor, or in any other manner supports the liquor traffic, should not consider himself fit or qualified to hold any office or occupy any place of leadership in The Methodist Church. Our pastors should not recommend or approve for membership on the board of stewards, or for service as an officer or teacher in the Sunday school, or for any other official position in the church, any person who manufactures, sells, advertises, buys, drinks, or votes for beer, wine, whiskey or any other alcoholic beverage. Our church cannot hope to win our battle against this vicious foe of humanity by having in places of leadership persons who patronize this nefarious business. As individuals, we Methodists should abstain absolutely from the use of alcoholic beverages. As members of society, we should vote and work to outlaw the liquor traffic. The attitude and the practice of individuals should be total abstinence. The attitude and the policy of government should be absolute prohibition. And to the achievement of total abstinence and absolute prohibition, we appeal to all Methodists and all other citizens in our country.

REPORT NO. 1—COMMISSION ON TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK

The Church is one body of believers in Jesus Christ seeking to proclaim His gospel to all people in every area of life. There is no conflict between the different parts of this body. When one part is weakened, the whole body is weakened, but when one part is strengthened the whole body is strengthened. To strengthen this body of Christ and to help it fulfill its mission, the Conference Commission on Town and Country Work has done the following:

1. Meetings of the executive committee and of the whole commission have been held for the study of and planning the work of the commission.
2. The J. M. Ormond Fund has been completed with an amount of $54,468.75 with an accumulated amount of $2,250.60, making the total amount of June 30, 1950, $56,715.15. The fund is in the hands of the Duke Divinity School and the terms and conditions for its proper usage have been agreed upon by the Commission on Town and Country Work and the Divinity School.
3. The commission is approving the minimum salary schedule of $2,200 for single ministers; $2,400 for married ministers without children, and $2,600 for ministers with one child or more, as recommended by the Board of Missions and Church Extension and also the increase in the percentage figure for the Minimum Salary Fund as recommended by the same board.
4. For the promotion of Christian stewardship and for the strengthening of the financial resources of the town and country churches, the plans known as "The Lord's Acre" and the "Harvest Day Service" have been encouraged during the year.
5. The Rural Parsonage Committee is continuing its efforts to improve the homes of the pastors.
6. The commission has recommended to the Bishop and his cabinet that Garriss Chapel and Piney Grove churches be taken from the Seven Springs Charge and that they constitute a special rural experimental charge, the purpose of which would be to relate the ministry of the church more closely to the farmers and to the needs of the farm population.
7. The commission is making plans for a full representation of laymen and ministers from our conference to attend the National Methodist Town and Country Conference to be held in Sioux City, Iowa, July 21-23, 1951.

REPORT NO. 2—COMMISSION ON TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK

The North Carolina Conference is predominantly a rural conference. It has been so from its beginning, and population trend studies indicate that it will be so for a long time to come.

The 1940 census showed that 77.7% of the population of the North Carolina Conference area was rural. Of this percentage 46.1% was white and 31.6% was non-white. The present population of our Conference area is 2,044,000. By 1980 it will probably be 2,500,000. Of the 2,500,000 total, 1,650,000 will be rural. Of the 1,650,000 rural population as of 1980, 1,000,000 will be white and 650,000 non-white.*

The Annual Conference of 1947 adopted a report which stated, "We recognize the fact that the rural areas are the fountain heads of resources in terms of leadership, population, religious and economic life, and that many of these areas are now suffering religious and cultural depletion.

"This fact calls for an awakened church consciousness of the significance of the rural community, issuing in a growing statesmanship and strategy that will develop religious institutions adequate to create and conserve the religious and cultural values in rural community life.

"The North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church recognizes the basic significance of the rural church to the total life of the church, and recognizes the gradual decline in strength of the rural church, and regrets the inadequate policy heretofore pursued with reference to it. Therefore, the Conference does at this time commit itself to the policy of mobilizing its total resources to provide a ministry of adequate scope and effectiveness to the rural people of our Conference area."

In reference to the foregoing the following suggestions are hereby made:

1. The circuit system which was once the strength of Methodism is now one of the major weaknesses. A great many strong churches now on circuits could be made stations, and many circuits should be divided. We must rapidly move to the time when no circuit has more than three churches. The preachers needed for such a program of church development can be secured.

2. The minimum salary schedule as affecting areas of the rural church, while being in process of improvement, is yet inadequate. A minimum salary of $3,000 for married preachers with children, should be established within the next two years.

3. There is something fundamentally wrong with the appointment system which, in the overall, works to the disadvantage of the rural church.

4. In the new movement for church extension, the opportunities in open country areas should not be overlooked.

5. In view of the vast youth population in rural areas, a well planned and well executed conference evangelical rural youth program is an urgent need, as well as being a strategic opportunity.

6. A great resource of conference lay leadership is to be found in the rural churches. The resource, generally speaking, is not being adequately developed.

7. The North Carolina Conference area has a large farm tenant population. The percentage of white farm families who are tenants is 44.2%. In some counties this figure reaches 70%. An adequate appraisal of and approach to this field of church responsibility is long overdue.*

8. The rural church would be greatly benefited by a proper integration of the promotional programs which originate from the general and conference boards and agencies. Campaigns and drives pile up on top of each other and thus lessen their effectiveness.

9. The most urgent need we have, next to a real revival of vital religion, is for a movement to Christian unity and fellowship in the Conference. Too many opportunities and responsibilities are being dissipated for the lack of unity. The rural church movement in the Conference does not seek to divide but desires to help unite and to help strengthen the church as a whole.

10. The concept of conference leadership based upon the machine pattern is inadequate for the days of opportunity which are ahead. A more democratic pattern of leadership would be more efficient, and would serve to improve the spirit of unity in the Conference.

11. The time has fully come when Protestant overlapping in rural communities should be viewed as disgraceful and dissipative. It would be becoming for the Methodists in our conference area to lead out in seeking a constructive solution to this problem. A policy of trading out weak churches with other denominations would be one possible approach.

12. A spirit of conservation has long gripped our Conference. The opportunities which are at hand call for a rapidly developing spirit of progressiveness.

13. Governor Scott's rural road program is opening new doors of opportunity for the rural church. These opportunities should be recognized and analyzed, and utilized by the inauguration of a long range program of rural church planning on a conference-wide basis.

REPORT NO. 3—COMMISSION ON TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK

1. The Commission on Town and Country Work requests the Conference to appropriate the amount of $750 for the running expenses of the Commission for the new conference year.

2. The Commission on Town and Country Work requests the Conference to appropriate the amount of $3,000 to finance the delegation to the National Methodist Town and Country Conference, to be held in Sioux City, Iowa, July 21-23, 1951.

3. The Commission on Town and Country Work concurs with the Board of Missions and Church Extension report requesting the Conference to increase the percentage on the minimum salary fund.

4. The North Carolina Rural Church Institute, Incorporated, requests the Conference to nominate a man and a woman who might serve on the Board of Directors of the Institute. These nominations would be considered at the time of the election of directors at the annual meeting the second Tuesday of January, 1951. The North Carolina Annual Conference is hereby requested to make as its nominations, Rev. J. D. A. Autry of La Grange and Miss Edna Boone of Farmville.

Pursuant to Paragraph 1232 of the 1948 Discipline, the Commission on Town and Country Work nominates Rev. J. D. A. Autry for Conference Secretary of Town and Country Work without salary.

REPORT OF C. W. GOLDSTON, TREASURER, COMMISSION ON TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK, FOR FISCAL YEAR ENDED OCTOBER 31, 1950

Auditor's Report

To Mr. C. W. Goldston, Treasurer,
Commission on Town and Country Work,
The North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church,
Goldsboro, North Carolina.

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to your request, I have examined the available treasurer's records and all available data of the Commission on Town and Country Work for the fiscal year ended October 31, 1950. As a result thereof we submit the following statements making up my report:

EXHIBIT A—Statement of receipts and disbursements, all funds, for the fiscal year ended October 31, 1950.

EXHIBIT B—Bank Reconciliation, October 31, 1950.

Subject to the fact that due to the press of time, the end of the month bank statement had not been available at the time of this report and subject to the fact that expense vouchers were not confirmed direct with the spenders of the money, in my opinion, the foregoing statements fairly present the financial transactions for the fiscal year ended October 31, 1950.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES C. CRONE
Certified Public Accountant.

REPORT OF THE WORLD PEACE COMMITTEE

That we live in a world fraught with unprecedented dangers no sane person would deny. That mounting tension, fear, misunderstanding, prejudice and hatred threaten to undermine peace between individuals and nations becomes increasingly apparent every day. It is clear now that powerful forces at work in the world today can easily plunge all mankind into the most devastating war in human history. In the face of the cataclysmic and world-shaking events breaking all about us men generally feel their utter helplessness.

Yet the Christian Church is not helpless. Christianity came into the world in an hour of crisis. It has done its greatest work when the light of civilization burned low. In this hour we call upon the church to give wise and courageous leadership. It should proclaim with all the vigor and earnestness at its command that man-made measures—whether they be military, political or economic—can never bring peace to our troubled world; that there can be no peace until men know and follow the Prince of Peace.

Christians believe that more things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams. Because your committee believes so strongly in prayers for peace, it begs to offer the following resolutions: First, that this Annual Conference respectfully requests the Bishop and his Cabinet to institute and set forth a great prayer crusade in every church in the Conference; secondly, that all churches in the North Carolina Conference be opened at eleven o'clock each Tuesday morning during the ensuing Conference year for prayers in the interest of world peace, for information, confession, repentance and rededication. If the 165,000 Methodists of this Conference really get on their knees and carry the cause of peace to the throne of grace the hope for universal good will among men will be greatly strengthened.

We are encouraged by the developing vigor and influence of the United Nations. We take heart in the fact that the United States continues to work through this world organization. We strongly urge the national administration to extend the policy developed in the recent Korean situation of allowing the United Nations to determine policy-making decisions and making our power available to implement those decisions. We urge the Congress to take the steps necessary to initiate the process of amending the charter of the United Nations to enable this organization to more effectively prevent aggression.

Again, we support every effort to create friendship and goodwill among the people of the world through such agencies as the World Council of Churches, Crusade scholarships, youth caravans, missionary organizations and every other agency for human good. Moreover, we call upon every Christian to promote brotherhood in the church, in the community and in the nation by practicing the principles of brotherhood and by using every effort possible to break down class, racial and religious walls in our midst.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ACCEPTED SUPPLY PASTORS

The Committee on Accepted Supply Pastors is impressed by the effective work that is being done by the men who are serving our church in this relationship. Over 800 new members have been added to the churches served by Supply Pastors this year; 650 of these were on profession of faith. One pastor reports 123 additions to the church, 112 of these on profession of faith. There has been an increase in the church school enrollment of over 1,000.

The Committee would like to urge all Supply Pastors to attend the Supply Pastors' School held at Duke each summer. The committee would also like to urge our Accepted Supplies to give emphasis to the full program of the church wherever possible.

The committee recommends that the following persons be listed as Accepted Supply Pastors:

W. H. Brady, John A. Cooper, James M. Carroll, Z. V. Cowan, Norman A. Desrosiers, James A. Faucett, W. J. Freeman, J. T. Fisher, Robert M. Gradeless, W. R. Johnson, Harold F. Leatherman, Louie A. REPORT OF BOARD OF MANAGERS OF PASTORS' SCHOOL

The 1950 session of the Pastors' School was held again as a part of the Duke University Christian Convocation. A marked increase was noted both in attendance and interest. Courses were offered in Vacation Church School, Rural Evangelism, Parish Problems, Preaching, Bible Manuscripts, Biblical Interpretation, and other fields of religious interest. The faculty included Mrs. W. W. Reel, Dr. James Cleland, Dr. Arthur Hewitt, Dr. H. A. Bosley, Dr. William Brownlee, Dr. A. J. Walton, and others.

The James A. Gray Lectures were delivered at this session of the Convocation. Six lectures were given by Dr. Ralph W. Sockman, pastor of Christ's Methodist Church, New York. The morning devotionals were conducted by Bishop Costen J. Harrell.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE OF INVESTIGATION

During the last three or four years preachers and laymen of the Conference have been the recipients of anonymous cards and letters. Our Bishop had hoped that the persons responsible for this would, out of their sense of the high calling of the Christian ministry and their love for the church, desist from this annoying practice; but in this he was to be disappointed.

Bishop Peele has only recently requested and authorized the Committee of Investigation to proceed with an investigation in order to bring the persons responsible for the thing into the light where all things pertaining to the Gospel of Christ and His Church belong, and where good and true ministers do their work; and also that the shadow of suspicion might be lifted from this great body of true men who have had no part in this thing.

Accordingly, the committee has met and decided on its plan of procedure, and will conduct the investigation as early in the new conference year as practicable. This committee is elected by the Conference and is your agent. It, therefore, has a right to ask and receive the wholehearted cooperation of every person connected with the Conference.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MOVING EXPENSES

The committee has obtained certain facts but believes that further study will be necessary before it is prepared to make recommendations. We therefore request that the committee be continued for another year.

Questionnaires have been sent to all pastors moving to new charges at the last Conference. Of these, 67% were returned. Approximately 25% of the preachers moved either in their own vehicles or in those loaned by private individuals. For the remainder an average of 3,597 pounds was moved an average of 108 miles at an average cost of $52.72. Those moving reported damage averaging $41. In only four cases did churches contribute to the expense of moving. The last four years approximately 65% of the moves have been made by preachers with salaries under $3,000.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON INSURANCE

Your committee appointed to study group insurance and the adequate support of the ministry begs leave to report as follows:

(1) Provisions of the General Statutes of North Carolina make it impossible for the members of the Conference, as a group, to purchase life insurance and pay the premium therefor themselves; any group life insurance plan, therefore, will require the Conference either to pay the premium in full or to pay a substantial part of the premium.

(2) It does not appear feasible for any plan to be adopted of the Conference paying a part of the premium and the ministerial members contributing the remainder of the premium; therefore, only consideration should be given to a plan whereby the Conference would pay the entire premium for group life insurance on all ministerial members of the Conference.

(3) All companies submitting proposals to the Committee have explained that the amount of the premium would be calculated on the same basic rate.

(4) All companies submitting proposals have explained that the premium for such group life insurance would be quoted only for one year at a time, with revision of the premium to be charged and collected being made annually on the basis of the number of deaths occurring in the preceding year among the group and on the attained ages of the various individual members of the group. It would appear therefore that the Conference could have no assurance that the premium to be paid for group insurance would remain constant in amount, but that the amount of the premium could fluctuate from year to year. The figure, $5,000, was mentioned as a possible amount of an initial premium to provide each ministerial member of the Conference $1,000 of group life insurance, but the Committee was cautioned that this figure might have to be adjusted upwards, dependent upon pertinent data as to ages of all the members of the group, etc.

(5) Ministerial members of the Conference receive support, as a group, from the following sources:

- (1) Local church salary and housing.
- (2) Local church travel allowance, in some cases.
- (3) Mission Board, Duke Fund, or Sustentation Fund—salary supplement to local church salaries, in some cases.
- (4) Conference Claimants Fund.
- (5) Ministers' Retirement Fund.
- (6) Brotherhood Fund.

It should be noted that the Brotherhood Fund functions somewhat like life insurance, in that payments are made in a lump sum shortly after death.

It should be further noted that Conference Claimants' money also fills the function of certain insurance plans (annuities or deferred installments to widows and beneficiaries) by providing payments to widows and dependents of deceased ministerial members of the Conference.

(6) The Methodist Church and the North Carolina Conference, in particular, has been making determined efforts recently to do two things in connection with ministerial support: first, is to assure every minister of a salary adequate to take care of reasonable needs and desires; and secondly, to assure every minister that when his days of active work are over, he shall continue to receive an income. Recently, great strides in this Conference have been made with regard to Conference Claimants' income and it is to be hoped that nothing will deter or hinder this program.

(7) Life insurance is purchased by a great many persons with one or two main goals: either to provide lump sum cash upon death or to provide annuity for the insured after retirement and for widows after the death of the insured. The kind and scope of insurance programs are of course widely varied, but guaranteed "protection" is basic.

(8) Many ministerial members of the Conference have said that they would prefer the independence of action and choice which could be theirs to purchase as much or as little insurance as they deemed wise, or to secure "protection" for their families through other means of saving, provided they earned reasonable salaries.

In conclusion, your Committee recommends:

(1) That every effort be made to maintain the Conference Brotherhood, not only to provide a means of ready and immediate cash to a bereaved family, but also for the deeply significant spiritual values implicit in the sharing of many persons with a single bereaved family;

(2) That the Conference continue its splendid work of promoting greater support of the Conference Claimants fund, to provide annuity "protection" for retired men and their families, both before and after death.

(3) That the Conference do not embark upon a program of group life insurance.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON TIME OF MEETING OF OUR CONFERENCE

After much consideration, and investigation among members of the North Carolina Conference, and members of other annual conferences, which have changed their time of meeting; we recommend the proposed change of time for the North Carolina Conference.

First: That the Conference adopt the policy of moving the Conference date forward two weeks each year until the desired date is reached. This would not bring about any drastic change or necessitate reshaping our church program.

Second: That the Conference ask the Bishop to set the date for the 1951 session of the Conference on October 17, 1951, and in the event this conflicts with the session of the Virginia Annual Conference, this date be moved either one week before or after.

Third: That the Conference for the year 1952 be moved up to Wednesday following the first Sunday in October.

Fourth: That Wednesday, following the first Sunday in October, may be established as a permanent workable schedule, unless, otherwise considered, following the 1952 session of the Annual Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

ALLEN P. BRANTLEY
R. G. DAWSON
R. L. JEROME
C. W. ROBBINS

Note: A substitute report requesting that the Conference meet in June was adopted.

Amendment to Substitute

In order to permit time to thresh out the financial changes involved and to permit time for local churches to adjust their thinking and planning, it is requested that the Conference should meet in 1951 at the usual date and in 1952 at the new date.

REPORT OF THE METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

In some respects, the report of the Methodist Board of Publication, Inc., for the fiscal year ending August 31, was one of the best in the history of the organization. During the year income from all sources totalled $94,574.83. Net profit, pending completion of the annual audit, was $10,398.62, an all-time record. Income from subscriptions was $25,008, or $2,407 over the previous year. Income from job work rose to $62,495.74, the largest in the history of the Piedmont Press.

Yet there is another side to this picture. During recent years much of our printing equipment has become obsolete and inefficient. Therefore, the Board last year authorized the purchase of new equipment as finances permitted. During the year a new Kluge job press, a Baum folder and a new Miehle 29 press have been purchased at a total cost of $20,500. These additions to our equipment have already added to the efficiency of operation, enabling the Piedmont Press, which is operated by the Methodist Board of Publication, to increase its volume substantially. Other equipment will be purchased as funds are available.

Even though the circulation of the North Carolina Christian Advocate continues to climb slowly, we can take small comfort when we realize that only about fifteen percent of the Methodist families in the state receive this periodical. At a time when the printed word is having its greatest influence, many seem content to keep our church periodicals third-rate and ineffective. The North Carolina Christian Advocate occupies a strategic place in North Carolina Methodism. It can become a tremendous power for good. It can give telling support to every good cause of the church. It can play a large part in making this state distinctively Christian. But to do all this it needs the support of every pastor and lay official of North Carolina Methodism. The North Carolina Christian Advocate, unlike other agencies of the church, and for that matter unlike most other Conference organs, does not ask the Conference for funds to carry on its work. It only asks for the privilege of reaching Methodist homes with the printed word. It asks for, and has a right to expect, every pastor and lay official to present the Advocate faithfully to the people.

To reach more homes, the Board has authorized the editor and manager to offer the North Carolina Christian Advocate during the new Conference year for $1.50 a subscription to churches that will send the Advocate to every resident and active family. Moreover, the board requests the conferences to designate January, 1951, as Advocate Month, and that churches which do not adopt the every-family plan to accept a goal of seven subscribers for every 100 members for the new Conference year and strive diligently to reach that goal.

During the year the Board purchased at a cost of $16,500 a house at 109 S. Tremont Drive, Greensboro, as a home for the editor. The board needs and will greatly appreciate contributions toward the liquidation of the indebtedness against this property.

The terms of T. C. Hoyle, Sr., and John Hackney expire this year. The board at its annual meeting, September 12, nominated Mr. Hoyle and Mr. Hackney to succeed themselves, and requests their re-election for a five-year term by their respective Conferences.

The following officers were re-elected: A. J. Hobbs, president; N. L. Eure, vice-president; T. C. Hoyle, Sr., secretary; and C. W. Robbins, editor and manager.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

Report of Treasurer

October 27, 1950

Rev. H. Freo Surratt, Treasurer
 North Carolina Conference Brotherhood
 Rich Square, North Carolina

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to your request, I have examined the books and records of the North Carolina Conference Brotherhood for the period from October 25, 1949, to October 25, 1950, and found them to be in order.

All receipts were analyzed by call numbers and the total recorded receipts are in agreement with deposits made during the period. All payments were made by checks, which were analyzed and the summary of transactions by call numbers is shown on an attached schedule.

In addition to the balance on deposit with The Bank of Rich Square, there were two shares of Co-operative Building and Loan stock at October 25, 1950.

Respectfully,

THE DUKE ENDOWMENT, 1949-1950

The following appropriations have been made in the two Carolina Conferences for the conference year 1949-1950:

There were 132 churches seeking aid from the Endowment and their total askings totaled more than $200,000. All applications seemed worthy, but it was impossible with the sum available for appropriation to help everyone. Those churches which find it impossible to care for their cost renew their applications.

CONFERENCE TREASURER'S REPORT

For Fiscal Year, December 1, 1949, to November 30, 1950

Reverend Thomas McM. Grant, Secretary

North Carolina Conference

Rocky Mount, North Carolina

Dear Sir:

We have audited the books and financial records of Mr. C. A. Dillon, Treasurer of the North Carolina Conference, for the period beginning December 1, 1949, and ended November 30, 1950, and in connection therewith we examined and verified the Treasurer's annual report which was prepared by Mr. Haslin Simon, Assistant Treasurer, for publication in the Conference Journal of Proceedings.

In our opinion, this report, copy of which is enclosed herewith, correctly shows all receipts properly classified for the various causes during the period. The disbursements as shown were made in accordance with the apportionments for World Service and Conference Benevolences as recommended by the Commission on World Service and Finance, and the balances of unexpended funds at November 30, 1950, are correctly stated.

TREASURER'S REPORT OF THE ADVANCE FOR CHRIST AND HIS CHURCH

Marvin J. Cowell, Treasurer

Rev. W. L. Clegg, Chairman,
Committee on the Advance,
Burlington, North Carolina

Dear Sir:

I have audited the books and financial records of Mr. Marvin J. Cowell, Treasurer of the Committee on The Advance of the North Carolina Conference, for the fiscal year ended November 30, 1950, and in connection therewith I submit the attached statements as follows:

EXXHIBIT A—Statement of Receipts and Disbursements—by funds—for the fiscal year ended November 30, 1950.

EXXHIBIT B—Detailed statement of Receipts—by funds—for the fiscal year ended November 30, 1950.

In my opinion, the above described statements correctly show all receipts properly classified for the various causes and districts during the year.

The disbursements as shown were made in accordance with rules and instructions as recommended by the Committee on The Advance, and the balances of unexpended funds at November 30, 1950, are correctly stated.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK E. BUTLER,
Certified Public Accountant

REPORT OF NORTH CAROLINA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

Durham, N. C.

September 13, 1950

North Carolina Council of Churches,
College Station,
Durham, North Carolina.

Gentlemen:

Pursuant to instructions, I have audited the accounts and records of the North Carolina Council of Churches for the period beginning September 1, 1949, and ending August 31, 1950.

During the course of the audit, all receipts were audited and traced into the bank account, all cancelled check were examined and applied, and the bank account reconciled. All records were found in order, and in my opinion the statements of the Treasurer properly reflect the financial activity during the period under review.

Respectfully submitted,

G. C. Henrickson, C. P. A.

RESOLUTIONSAMBASSADOR TO THE VATICAN STATE

Whereas from the beginning of this country Americans have believed in the separation of church and state, and

Whereas it is plainly declared in the Constitution of the United States that "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion," and this has been repeatedly and clearly interpreted by the Supreme Court to mean the complete separation of church and state; and

Whereas it has been proposed that the United States government depart from the American tradition and law and establish an embassy at Vatican City and send a fully accredited ambassador with staff to the Vatican State, the head of which is the reigning Pope of the Roman Catholic Church; and

Whereas the President of the United States is reported to have said publicly that he is seriously giving consideration to the creation of such a mission;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church in yearly session at Kinston, North Carolina, November 1, 1950:

(1) That we adhere in the conviction strictly to the principle of the separation of church and state set forth above;

(2) That we believe the proposed embassy at Vatican City, which would recognize the head of the church as a sovereign governing state on equality with other national sovereignties, to be in clear violation of firmly established principles of American tradition and law, which places all religious organizations and faiths in equal standing before the law in relation to civil and governmental authority;

(3) That we, therefore, respectfully urge upon the President of the United States and our Department of State in Washington the cogency of these principles held by the vast majority of American citizens and deeply embedded in constitutional law, and declare the hope that the proposed embassy will not be established and that no ambassador to the Vatican will be appointed; and

(4) That copies of this resolution be sent to President Harry S. Truman, Vice-President Barkley, Honorable Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, and to the Senators representing the State of North Carolina.

CHURCH PROPERTY

Whereas the Bethel Methodist Church, Bladen Charge, has been discontinued and abandoned for several years; therefore, be it resolved, that the North Carolina Annual Conference authorize the sale of this property and that the proceeds realized therefrom be used by the trustees of the Bladen Charge for parsonage improvement of said charge.

C. D. BARCLIFT

CHURCH PROPERTY

Whereas the Old Hundred Church of the Laurel Hill Charge, Fayetteville District, has been discontinued, be it resolved, that the North Carolina Annual Conference authorize the sale of the property and that the proceeds realized be used by the trustees of the Laurel Hill Charge for parsonage improvement by said charge.

WALTER C. BALL

CHURCH PROPERTY

Whereas a movement has been launched to erect a suitable marker to the memory of Bishop Asbury at the site of the old Rocky River Methodist Church, Fayetteville District, Albright township, Chatham County, North Carolina, and

Whereas the plot of ground on which the log building was erected was deeded by one Isaac Cox, who was unable to sign his name but "his mark" was witnessed by Bishop Asbury, and

Whereas an association has been organized, officers elected, and plans proposed for perpetuating the planting of the Methodist Church in this part of our state by Bishop Asbury as early as 1789, and

Whereas it is desired and highly important that the association have official recognition by the North Carolina Conference, so as to give the movement official status,

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, in session assembled at Queen Street Methodist Church, Kinston, N. C. November 1, 1950, that this historical association be recognized by the North Carolina Conference and that the Conference cooperate with the said Francis Asbury-Rocky River Association in promoting and directing the activities of the association through the First Methodist Church of Siler City and the Siler City Circuit.

And be it further resolved, that the North Carolina Conference retains the title to and control of the aforesaid property and retains the right to change, reorganize or otherwise deal with the aforesaid association as the Conference may see fit, and that the title to the property remain with the Siler City Circuit Quarterly Conference.

W. L. CLEGG

CHURCH PROPERTY

Be it resolved that Eureka Church on the Pasquotank Charge be discontinued and the property be placed in the hands of the Pasquotank Quarterly Conference.

ENDOWMENT FOR CLAIMANTS

Whereas the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, The Methodist Church, is authorized and permitted under the pertinent provisions of the Discipline of The Methodist Church, pertinent parts being included in paragraph 1612 of such Discipline though not limited to such paragraph by reference herein, to establish and maintain investment funds the income from which shall be applied to the support of Conference Claimants; and whereas the North Carolina Conference in annual session assembled at Kinston, N. C., November 1-5, inclusive, deems it advisable that a permanent investment fund shall be established and hereafter maintained for the purpose of stabilizing and supporting the payments which shall hereafter be made by such Conference to Conference Claimants; and whereas it is deemed essential and necessary that such investment fund be established forthwith to provide for future payments and to insure that such future payments may be made equally and ratably to all Conference Claimants,

BE IT NOW, THEREFORE, RESOLVED(as follows:

Section 1—Sub-section (a) That an annual apportionment be and the same hereby is made on each charge of this Conference in the amount of four per cent of the pastor's salary as defined by the Ministers' Retirement Fund regulations, and such apportionments shall be paid as hereinafter provided.

Sub-section (2)— That an annual assessment in the amount of one per cent of the cash salary (as defined by the Ministers' Retirement Fund regulations) of each person assigned by the Conference be made on each person and clerical member of the North Carolina Conference to be paid as hereinafter provided. Retired ministers and ministers serving without annuity excepted.

Section 2—That the apportionments and the assessments hereinabove mentioned shall be paid annually to the Treasurer of the Ministers' Retirement Fund for the account of a special fund to be called the North Carolina Conference Claimants' Permanent Endowment Fund and that the Conference Treasurer quarterly shall remit collections on account of such apportionments and assessments to the person, firm, or corporation directed by the Board of Trustees of the North Carolina Conference as hereinafter more fully provided.

Section 3—That the Board of Trustees of the North Carolina Conference shall, after full investigation, select some corporation engaged in the business of administering trust estates to serve as Trustee of this fund and after such selection shall enter into a written trust agreement with such selected institution, providing in the trust agreement substantially the following features:

Sub-section (a) All payments as to the Trustees shall be held and invested and the income therefrom added to the total amount of principal until such time as the total amount of principal and such accumulated income shall amount to a total of one million dollars or until payments have been made for a total of fifteen consecutive years, whichever event shall first occur, and that after the happening of either event the Trustee shall thereupon and thereafter annually remit to the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Trustees the net annual income derived from the trust fund for distribution as the Board of Conference Claimants of the North Carolina Conference shall determine and point out. In the event that the income is needed by the Board of Conference Claimants to meet the current rate or rate recommended by the Discipline whichever is lower, the Trustee shall thereupon remit to the Treasurer of the Board of Conference Claimants the amount required to make such payments up to the total income of the fund during the preceding year.

Sub-section (b) That the trust agreement or indenture shall provide that the principal and all income accumulated as hereinabove provided shall be an irrevocable trust fund, the principal and accumulated income to be held inviolate in trust for the use and purposes of developing income for use as aforesaid and only the income from such trust fund to be spent and distributed for purposes and to persons as directed by the Board of Conference Claimants.

Section 4—The Executive Officers of the Board of Trustees of the North Carolina Conference are hereby authorized and directed for and on behalf of the North Carolina Conference to enter into the trust agreement with some Trustee selected as aforesaid and to execute in the name of the Conference all necessary documents in connection therewith, the details of such documents having been first approved by the Board of Trustees.

Note: The above resolution was offered to Conference. The following substitute for it was adopted by the Conference:

Be it resolved, That a committee, consisting of representatives of the Board of Conference Claimants, the Board of Retirement Homes, the Commission on World Service and Finance, and the Conference at large, be appointed to study the present efforts of the Conference to provide for retired ministers to the end that these efforts be concentrated on the establishment of a sound and integrated retirement program for the ministers of the Conference as speedily as possible. And that the recommendations of this committee be distributed to all ministers and lay delegates of the Conference at least 30 days prior to the 1951 session.

H. G. RUARK

ORDINATION

Be it resolved, That authorization be granted for ordination of Murrell Kelso Glover as Elder, if and when his ordination becomes necessary to his appointment to the chaplaincy.

BOARD OF MINISTERIAL TRAINING AND QUALIFICATIONS

SPIRITUAL RETREAT

In spite of contrary winds, there is evidence that the breezes of God's Spirit are blowing in the midst of our Conference. With the hope and prayer that these breezes may become the rushing of a mighty wind, producing Pentecostal results, we request Bishop Peele to consider calling the ministers of this body to a united Spiritual Retreat for heart-searching, self examination, prayer, and renewed consecration. The details of this retreat, if held, would be left to Bishop Peele.

Lest this request should represent no more than a casual intention, we ask that the ministers make it a concern of prayer and that discussion and vote on the matter be deferred until Saturday morning, immediately following the devotional service.

THANKS

When we were "wooded" a year ago by our genial host to come to Kinston, we had some misgiving concerning the ability of the "wooer" to keep all his promises. At the close of the Annual Conference all doubts have been dissipated, and we are overwhelmingly convinced that he not only spoke in good faith but that there were many wonderful things not revealed.

We want to express our appreciation to every person who has had any part in making this a great conference. From the time we arrived to the time of our departure, our every need has been met. We must mention in special appreciation our gracious host pastor, Dr. Henry I. Glass, and his efficient Director of Christian Education, Miss Susan Waller; J. J. Quinn, general chairman of the entertainment committee; Dr. B. B. Slaughter, District Superintendent; W. F. Somers of the Kinston Hotel; the women of the church and the other churches of this city for preparing and serving the delicious meals; the many homes of this city which have been opened to us with the gracious hospitality to be found only in a southern city; the excellent reporting by the Free Press; the use of the facilities of Radio Stations WFTC and WELS; to Boy Scout Troop No. 43; and to Mrs. H. H. Johnson, organist and choir director of this church, and the choirs she directs, for the inspirational music. Douglas Baker supplied the delicious apples, which kept a dozen doctors away a day.

We are indebted to our own greatly beloved Bishop W. W. Peele for his gracious and judicious guidance through this 1950 session of the North Carolina Conference, and to Bishop Richard C. Raines for his great and challenging sermons. The Conference program has been of the highest order because of the great and noble spirit of these two leaders and their assistants, Dr. Gaither P. Warfield, Dr. J. Wilson Critchlow, and Governor W. Kerr Scott. It has been indeed a great Conference and we shall be eternally indebted to the gracious people of Kinston.

Memoirs

REV. H. S. B. THOMPSON

By J. E. Pritchard

Horatio Seymore Blair Thompson was born in Alamance County, N. C., February 29, 1868, and departed this life at his home in Seagrove, N. C., November 19, 1949. Had he lived a few more weeks he would have been 82 years old. He was the son of Sebert and Louzenia Blair Thompson of Alamance County. He attended school at Bethel Academy, High Point High School and Yadkin College. In 1893 he was admitted on trial in the North Carolina Annual Conference of the former Methodist Protestant Church and was ordained an Elder in 1895. Brother Thompson was twice married. The first marriage was to Miss Maud Hanner, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. R. R. Hanner. In a few years she was claimed by death, leaving two small boys. On the ninth of July, 1902, Brother Thompson was united in marriage with Miss Bessie Lewallen, daughter of Zemri and Sara Gray Lewallen of near Asheboro. Surviving are his widow who lives at Seagrove, N. C., and the following children: Robert of Greenville, Lloyd of Durham, George of Roanoke Rapids, Mrs. C. I. Johnson of Asheboro, Alson of Baltimore, Md., Merle of Denver, Col., and Blair of Roanoke Rapids. Also surviving are 17 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren.

Brother Thompson's active work was in the former Methodist Protestant Church, having retired in 1928. Charges served by him were: Littleton circuit, Spring church, Randolph, Richland, Stanley, Cleveland, Saxapahaw and Randleman. Following his retirement he lived near Roanoke Rapids for a number of years, later moving to Seagrove.

Funeral service were held in the Central Methodist Church in Asheboro on November 21. The services were under the direction of the pastor, Rev. Walter R. Kelly, assisted by Rev. J. A. Burgess, Dr. S. W. Taylor and the writer. In speaking of the deceased, Rev. J. A. Burgess said: "For several years I was his pastor. I never had a more regular attendant on the services nor a more attentive and helpful listener nor a larger contributor of his means according to his ability." In speaking of Brother Thompson's beliefs, Mr. Burgess said: "He believed in God. God was as real to him as the air he breathed or the water he drank or the solid earth on which he walked. Nor was his God a blind impersonal force. His God was the source of all life; He was personal, present and accessible. He believed also in Jesus Christ as the God man. He believed in Him as the one in whose unique personality the nature of God and the nature of man were perfectly blended. He believed in Him as God's gift to a lost world to save the world."

Dr. S. W. Taylor, who had a long acquaintance with the deceased, has this to say: "My acquaintance with Brother H. S. B. Thompson began when we were school boys at Yadkin College. He was blessed with a strong body, an active mind and deep religious convictions. As a minister he was thoughtful, earnest and scriptural. He preached a high standard of Christian living and was intolerant toward wrongdoing. His faith in the Bible as the word of God was securely founded, and the gospel was to him the certain and only remedy for individual and social redemption. He believed in a regenerated heart and a consecrated life and that both are the heritage of everyone through Jesus Christ. His religion and the assurance of the gospel were his anchor through all the vicissitudes of his long life and his comfort for his enfeebled old age. Brother Thompson made his contribution to his day and generation, and after long years of earnest service he passed on in the triumphs of Christian faith from the church militant to the church triumphant."

His body was laid to rest in the Oaklawn cemetery in Asheboro to await the resurrection morn.

H. S. B. THOMPSON

By Mrs. H. S. B. Thompson

Early Saturday morning, November 19, 1949, he whispered to me saying, "I'm going Home, I'm going Home, and I'm almost there now." I didn't realize at this time he was so near Home—the one we spoke of so often, our Heavenly Home. His going leaves me sad and lonely.

For a precious one from me is gone,
A voice I loved so much is stilled,
A place is vacant in my home
That never can be filled.

The loneliness in my heart,
Is all I can bear,
I miss you each day, dear,
Since God called you to His care.

You are not dead—not lost,
But gone on before,
You live with me in memory
And will forever more.

God needed another angel,
To worship before His throne,
So, He looked down from Heaven
And called my loved one Home.

Time has past since that sad day,
The one I loved was called away,
God took you, it was His will,
But your memory lingers still.

More and more each day I miss you, dear,
Friends may think the wound is healed,
But they little know the sorrow
That lives in my heart concealed.

Yes, God took you Home, it was His will,
And in my heart your memory liveth still,
But only a star shines over the grave,
Of the one I loved, and could not save.

WILLIAM JOSEPH WATSONBy O. W. Dowd

William Joseph Watson was born in Poquoson, Virginia, January 21, 1875. His parents were Benjamin Franklin Watson and Sarah Frances Quinn. He was educated at Randolph Macon, Bedford City, Virginia. He completed his theological training through a four years' correspondence school, Nashville, Tenn. He received local license at Morehead City, July 30, 1908, R. F. Bumpas presiding. He joined the North Carolina Conference which met in Durham in 1908. He was ordained Deacon in Elizabeth City, December 4, 1910, Eugene R. Hendrix, presiding bishop. He was ordained Elder at Fayetteville, December 1, 1912, Collins Denny, presiding bishop. He retired in 1946 from Princeton charge.

He was twice married. His first marriage was to Josephine Virginia Callis of Matthews County, Virginia. She died October 21, 1935, at Bolton, N. C. His second marriage was to Lennie P. Jackson of Creswell, N. C.

Brother Watson died in Rex Hospital, Raleigh, N. C., June 27, 1950. His funeral was conducted in the Providence Methodist Church, Grafton, York County, Virginia, June 29, 1950, by Rev. H. B. Porter, D. S., Raleigh District, assisted by Rev. M. H. Barton, pastor of the Providence church. Burial was in the family plot cemetery.

Brother Watson was a Mason. He was a member of St. Patrick's Lodge No. 617, A. F. and A. M., Princeton, N. C.

Brother Watson is survived by Lennie P. Watson, his wife; by three brothers, B. E. Watson, Grafton, Va.; C. T. Watson, Newport News, Va.; and L. H. Watson of Straits, N. C.; by three sisters, Mrs. F. H. Ironmonger, Hampton, Va.; Mrs. R. Vance Moore, Richmond, Va.; and Mrs. H. T. Guyn, Charlotte, N. C.

Space would hardly permit printing the many lovely and deserved things said of Brother Watson. The writer puts this item first: For 38 years in the active ministry of the North Carolina Conference his District Superintendent answered "nothing against him." He would be pleased if he could hear these things said of him: "He was good to me"; "We knew him and loved him"; "I shall never forget his many kind favors"; "He lived a long and useful life"; "He was a lovable man and we thought well of him"; "We think of his devotion to his Master and the people he served." These are some of the beautiful remarks made by his many friends he made in his pastoral relations.

We give here some excerpts from some ministers who knew him and loved him as a brother beloved. "A great spirit has gone to the higher clime." "He was a fine spirit and devoted to his work." "There will be many who will rise up and call him blessed." "A royal spirit has gone to his reward." He loved his people and they responded with love, cooperation, with understanding sympathy and fine appreciation. He received many kindnesses from his people. He loved all mankind, regardless of class or creed or color. He had faith in the gospel he preached, in the Christ he loved, in the church he served. He had faith in his fellowman, and believed in the worth and dignity of man. No one doubted the genuineness of his faith or ever questioned his devotion or loyalty to his church and to his Lord.

So, as we glance over the long list of charges he served, we remind ourselves of not only what his labors meant to his churches but also of the larger city churches that received many members by transfer from his charges, and were made stronger and better thereby.

"There was a genuineness in him that was perfectly radiant to me."
"I shall long cherish precious memories of him. He was one of my best friends in the N. C. Conference." "He assisted me in two meetings and preached fine revival sermons." "He was a fine Christian gentleman."

These fine tributes tell much of Brother Watson as preacher, pastor, friend. I would, as one of his personal friends, like to add my personal testimony. He had exceptional gifts in the realm of evangelism. He preached with a real passion for the salvation of lost souls. He preached with such clearness and conviction that he won a verdict, reaching young and old. He was not ashamed of the old gospel which is still the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth. His sermons were well thought out and made impressive with telling illustrations.

In the realm of the pastoral relations he served in a wonderful way.

I wish to mention here an item of interest to the Watson family and to the friends in the North Carolina Conference. Brother Watson's dear father served in the North Carolina Conference as a supply minister from 1904 to 1923. He died April 2, 1950. The father and son were much devoted and loyal, one to the other. Many times have I heard Brother Watson speak of his father in endearing terms. Father and son seemed to be proud of one another. Doubtless his son was inspired to be a minister of the gospel by the example of the father who taught his son to do justice, love mercy and walk humbly with his God.

Here follows the list of appoints he served: Straits, 1908-09; Columbia, 1909-10; Hatteras, 1910-11; Plymouth, 1911-14; Carver's Creek, 1914-18; Jacksonville-Richlands, 1918-20; Gatesville, 1920-21; Tar River Circuit, 1921-23; Four Oaks, 1923-25; Bynum, 1925-26; Fayetteville Circuit, 1926-27; Halifax, 1927-30; Burgaw, 1930-32; Carver's Creek, 1932-35; Roper, 1935-37; Stumpy Point, 1937-38; Pasquotank Circuit, 1938-41; Moncure Circuit, 1941-43; Princeton, 1943-46.

Brother Watson's goodness inspired goodness in others; his greatness was the cause of greatness in many a young life; his religion was contagious. He lived and preached a winsome gospel. He loved to tell the old, old story.

I will close this In Memoriam with the familiar words of a gospel hymn that sings the gospel of redemption that Brother W. J. Watson loved to preach:

"I love to tell the story;
'Tis pleasant to repeat
What seems each time I tell,
More wonderfully sweet.

"I love to tell the story;
For some have never heard
The message of salvation
From God's own holy word.

"I love to tell the story;
For those who know it best
Seem hungering and thirsting
To hear it like the rest.

"And when, in scenes of glory
I sing the new, new song,
'Twill be the old, old story
That I have loved so long."

LLOYD BAUM JONESBy E. L. Hillman

Lloyd Baum Jones was born in Camden County on June 4, 1878, the son of John Kight Jones and Mary Ellen Forbes Jones. The home of John Jones was one of dignity and piety, and of high ethical and moral standards. Visiting preachers were often entertained here, and from this home three sons were given to the Methodist ministry, John C. William F., and Lloyd B.

Lloyd B. Jones attended Trinity Park School and Drew Seminary. He traveled extensively in this country and abroad, and was a keen observer, always interested in the life and customs of people. He was admitted into the North Carolina Conference in 1905 at Wilson and served the following appointments: Hatteras, Plymouth, Central (Raleigh), Morehead City, Tarboro, Belhaven, Nashville, Roanoke Rapids, Sanford, Greenville, Hamlet, Weldon District, Rocky Mount District, Wilmington District, Oxford, Washington, City Road (Elizabeth City). After serving for 35 years he was retired in 1941 because of ill health.

Lloyd Jones was happily married to Elizabeth (Betty) Mayo on June 30, 1914, and theirs was a happy Christian home, characterized by warm hospitality and devoted companionship. To this union were born two daughters: Lily Mayo, now Mrs. William V. McBride, Joblin, Missouri, and Annie Bryan, now Mrs. W. Eugene Harrington of Washington, N. C.

It is difficult to put into words the traits of a good man, but those who knew L. B. Jones best loved him for his high standards of thought and conduct. Nothing cheap or little entered into his life. He was extremely sensitive about the influence that a Christian could have, and jealously guarded his words and conduct. He took his call to the ministry seriously, and was diligent in the preparation of his sermons. He was deeply sympathetic and suffered in the sorrows and heartaches of the people of his parish.

His love of fun and his keen sense of humor endeared him to a host of friends. Ever genial and kindly, he was loved and respected wherever he lived. He was a devoted husband and father, and family ties and affection were unusually strong with him.

After an invalidism that lasted two years he went to his heavenly reward on May 26, 1950. Funeral services were conducted by Dr. T. M. Grant and Dr. A. J. Hobbs, and his body was laid to rest in the cemetery in Rocky Mount, N. C.

BENJAMIN HERRIOT HOUSTONBy H. P. Powell

Kind and comforting words, however tenderly and sympathetically they may be spoken or written, fail to convey all that one feels deep in his or her heart at the time of a great loss. At such a time it challenges all the faith one possesses to believe that one so devoted to the ministry of Jesus Christ should be limited in his years of service. Yet, even the Master Himself was an example of what one may do not by the length of his ministry but rather by the quality of his service.

Brother Houston was born in Brunswick, Georgia, November 27, 1890. At the age of twelve he moved to Wilmington, N. C. Graduating from the Wilmington High School he entered Duke University. His graduate work was done in the Candler School of Theology of Emory University from which he received the B.D. degree in 1928. While at Duke University Mr. Houston was a star basketball player, his team winning the Southern championship. He was also a member of the Sigma Chi Fraternity.

Early in his ministry Mr. Houston went to Brazil as a missionary of The Methodist Church. Having been active in Youth Work, a member of the Board of Stewards and Treasurer of Grace Methodist Church, Wilmington, N. C., this church sponsored him as a young missionary.

In addition to his language study in Brazil in preparation for his work, he was appointed Athletic Director in Granberry College, an outstanding school for boys of The Methodist Church in Juiz de Fora. His work in this school was unique and meritorious—winning for him the confidence and respect of the boys, all of which he used to encourage high moral standards. This work spread to Rio and other cities, and intercollegiate athletics became the rule throughout the country.

Mr. Houston married the former Laura Crump of Wilmington, who survives, together with three children: Laurita Houston Barlow of Alfred University, Alfred, N. Y., who was born in Brazil; Ben, Jr., of the Dental School of the Medical College of Virginia at Richmond; and Bob of Davidson College; and one grandchild. Also two sisters and two brothers: Mrs. M. H. Cromartie of Raleigh, and Mrs. A. E. Shooter, and A. P. and R. M. Houston of Wilmington.

Due to an injury the family physician advised that Mrs. Houston should not return to Brazil with her husband; therefore Mr. Houston again became a member of the North Carolina Conference. Among his more recent pastorates were Morehead City, Centenary Church, Smithfield and Weldon, where he was pastor at the time of his death, being in his second year.

Brother Houston was a faithful and loyal Mason—holding thirty-two degrees in that organization. He was Past Master, member of the Blue Lodge, Scottish Rite, a Shriner and Past Worthy Patron of the Eastern Star. Interested in all civic progress, particularly in the establishment and enlargement of libraries, much of this work was done through his leadership in Boy Scout work and the Kiwanis Clubs. He was a veteran of World War I and chaplain of the American Legion.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist Church at Weldon, at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon of Friday, March 17, 1950. His District Superintendent, Dr. A. J. Hobbs, was assisted in the service by Dr. M. T. Plyler of Durham, who was Mr. Houston's pastor at the time of his call to Christian service; Dr. W. A. Stanbury of Gastonia, who officiated at the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Houston, being their pastor at the time they sailed for Brazil; and the writer. Interment was in Riverside Park, Smithfield, with Rev. Hiram K. King, pastor of Centenary church, in charge. Characteristic of the fine spirit of Mr. Houston, the family earnestly requested that no flowers be sent. Instead, it was suggested that all expressions of sympathy and comfort be directed to the church to which he gave his life as a minister.

As a friend, husband, father, minister and humble servant of the Saviour, he will be remembered tenderly and appreciated for his undying influence and usefulness. A brother minister of his said about him as the end drew near, "He is still able to talk and to smile." One cannot imagine Ben Houston unable or unwilling to smile, for it was in his heart to smile, to love and to help. To those who kept close to him during his long illness he continued to witness with patience and and uncomplaining love to the presence of the Spirit of the Christ within his heart. It was thus that he preached many of his most effective sermons.

Meditation upon the life he lived, the good he did and the Christ whom he loved so devotedly and served so unselfishly, it becomes reasonable to believe that the hymn-writer was writing for us in the following lines:

"Be still, my soul: the hour is hastening on
When we shall be forever with the Lord,
When disappointment, grief, and fears are gone,
Sorrow forgot, love's purest joys restored.
Be still, my soul: when change and tears are past,
All safe and blessed we shall meet at last."

JAMES G. PHILLIPS

By Edgar B. Fisher

For more than twenty years some of us in North Carolina had the good fortune to have the friendship of a choice spirit, namely, James G. Phillips. Words seem inadequate to portray and do justice to the life of the one about whom we now think.

James G. Phillips was born in Licking, Texas County, Missouri, on July 22, 1900, the son of Rev. Ornan Henry Phillips and Laura Ann Hudgins Phillips, of the Missouri Conference. "Jim," as he was affectionately known by his friends, passed away on the evening of May 25, 1950, having lived a life of distinguished Christian usefulness. He and I had been closely associated through the years. "To know him was the love him." He was admitted into the Methodist ministry in 1921, was ordained deacon in 1923, was ordained elder in 1927, and at the time of his death was in his twenty-ninth year of service as a Methodist minister. He did his undergraduate work at Central College, Missouri, where he received the Bachelor of Arts degree in 1923. For two years he was pastor of the Prairie Hill Charge in Missouri. He was a student at Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas, for two years. In 1925 he came to Chapel Hill, North Carolina, as student pastor, remaining in that capacity for four years. During this time he studied in the Duke University Divinity School, Durham, North Carolina, and received the Bachelor of Divinity degree in June, 1929. His other pastorates included: Pikeville-Elm Street Charge, 1929-1932; Hookerton, 1932-1936; Louisburg, 1936-1940 (teaching Bible at Louisburg College in addition to his duties as pastor of Louisburg Methodist Church); and Bethel, 1940-43. On December 1, 1943, he was elected Executive Secretary of the North Carolina Conference Board of Education, which position he served so effectively until his death on May 25 of this year. Before becoming Executive Secretary, he served as Secretary of the North Carolina Conference Board of Education for a number of years in addition to his duties as pastor.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Elizabeth Heath Phillips, whom he married June 14, 1929, and by three children: Elizabeth Lee (Betty Lee), Jane Louise, and (Bill) William Hart Phillips.

I have known "Jim" so well through the years as one who was a devoted servant of God. He was deeply consecrated and untiring in his efforts to succeed in advancing the cause of Christ. Many were led to the Master through his ministry, and the spiritual zeal of large numbers quickened greatly because of his influence. He was diligent in the pursuit of duty, never considering any personal cost too great to develop the work in which he was engaged. His noble life will continue to be a wonderful influence for good through the years. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord; their works do follow them." His ministry was effective, especially in the cause of Christian education. He was a member of the faculty in many assemblies for young people at Louisburg College, and he did splendid work in directing the youth program of our Conference. Much of the success of the work accomplished at Camp Don-Lee, a camp especially designed to promote Christian youth work in our Conference, will be due directly and indirectly to his unflagging zeal in the development of this project. Night and day he worked without complaint. As we think of the passing of our friend, while apparently only in the prime of life, we are reminded of the words of an unknown poet:

"Some workers quickly do their tasks
Of service and of love;
So their promotion early comes
To higher work above."

His funeral was conducted in Trinity Methodist Church, Durham, N. C., on the morning of May 27, by three of his co-workers in the ministry: D. D. Holt, Allen P. Brantley, and Edgar B. Fisher. Interment followed in Maplewood Cemetery, Annex B, in Durham.

"Jim" was a devoted husband and father, a sincere Christian, fully committed to the work of the Lord. With the Apostle Paul of old, as he approached life's earthly end, he could say: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is paid up for me a crown of righteousness."

MRS. P. M. LOCKLEAR

By L. E. Blackburn

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. . ." These words from the Apostle Paul to young Timothy describe the earthly life of Mrs. P. M. Locklear.

Mrs. P. M. Locklear (nee Mary Catherine Hunt) was born January 27, 1879, near Rowland, N. C., and slipped away from this earthly life in the early morning hours of January 19, 1950.

In June 1896, she became the bride of the late Rev. P. M. Locklear, a member of the Blue Ridge Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Mrs. Locklear was a devoted mother of twelve children, Mrs. Foster Thompson, Mrs. Flowers Sampson, Mrs. W. E. Loyd, Mrs. Stacy Locklear, Osborne Locklear, P. M. Locklear, Jr., Bryson Locklear, Burrell Locklear, Sanford Locklear, and Dewey Locklear, all of Pembroke, N. C.; Mrs. J. D. Berkheimer of Clayton, N. J., and Mrs. Charles Gordon of Philadelphia, Pa.

"Miss Mary Catherine" as she was affectionately called by all who knew her, professed her allegiance to her Christ early in life. She was a charter member of the First Methodist Church in Pembroke, having transferred her membership from New Bethel, December 17, 1922. Her membership remained at First Church until her death. She loved her church and her Master. She gave of her presence, her gifts, her prayers and service to the building of the Kingdom of God. She was not able to attend regularly to the services of worship during the latter months of her life; however her spirit and prayers were felt. It was an inspiration and a source of peace and strength to visit with her in her home, and to hear her testimony of following in the footsteps of Jesus, and to feel the warmth of her love for and trust in God.

Her funeral was conducted from First Methodist Church, Pembroke, by her pastor, Rev. Linwood E. Blackburn, assisted by Rev. D. F. Lowry, Rev. J. W. Smith, and Rev. Venus Brooks. Her body was laid to rest by the side of her husband in the cemetery at Prospect church.

"The Lord God Omnipotent reigneth still, and death shall be swallowed up into victory."

MRS. JOHN EDWARD BLALOCKBy B. T. Hurley

After a life of faithful and devoted service to her family, to her church, and to all who came within the sphere of her Christian influence, the gentle and lovable spirit of Mrs. Nancy Lentz Blalock returned to God who gave it at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John G. Hughes, Jr., Parkton, N. C., January 26, 1950. The funeral service was held at the home of her daughter in Parkton by her pastor, Rev. I. J. Strawbridge, assisted by Rev. W. B. Cotton, former pastor, and by Rev. W. A. Brown, pastor of the Parkton Presbyterian Church. Interment was in the cemetery at Fairmont, N. C., where she was laid to rest by the side of her husband, Rev. John E. Blalock, who died while he was pastor of Fairmont Methodist Church. May 25, 1938. Anticipating that the inevitable call to depart this life was not far distant, some time prior to her last illness she made detailed preparations for her funeral. We have no doubt but that she had made sufficient preparation for the great adventure in advance of her departure. Evidently she had in mind the nature of the voyage she was soon to take and the certainty of safely reaching the other side when she requested that Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar" be read at her funeral.

"Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!

* * * *

I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar."

Mrs. Blalock, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther A. Lentz, was born in Stanly County, N. C., September 7, 1885. She had three brothers and six sisters, namely: J. C. Lentz, of Durham; DeVere Lentz, of Asheville; L. A. Lentz, Jr., of Raleigh; Mrs. J. W. Bradley, Cary, wife of Rev. J. W. Bradley, retired member of the North Carolina Conference; Mrs. Jessie Lanier, of Norwood; Mrs. Charlie Bennett, of High Point; Mrs. Ollie Bennett, of Fayetteville; Mrs. John K. McNeill, of Raeford; Mrs. Lillie Thomas, deceased. Mrs. Blalock grew up in the church and united with it in early life. It was an essential part of her life. She received her education in the public schools of her county, and later attended Brevard Industrial Institute, now Brevard College. For some time prior to her marriage she was a successful teacher in the public schools of the state.

But her career as a school teacher came to an end when a young Methodist preacher persuaded her to share with him the vicissitudes of his calling. So on June 1, 1911, Nancy Lentz, at her home in Raeford, married Rev. John E. Blalock, who was serving his first pastorate in Yanceyville. With happy hearts these two young servants of God set forth upon what proved to be a successful career. From Yanceyville to Moyock, from Moyock to Milton, from Milton to Hillsboro, from Hillsboro to Benson, from Benson to Parkton, from Parkton to Jonesboro, from Jonesboro to Fairmont they went, leaving the savor of the good name of faithful servants of the Lord Jesus Christ. Much of the success of her husband's ministry is due to the encouragement and untiring work of his companion. She was the ideal preacher's wife. Throughout the years of their service, she endured the hardships and the privations incidental to the life of a minister's wife with patience and courageous fortitude. They were not rich in things, but rich in spirit and in good works.

When the parsonage home was broken up by the death of her husband, she went with her children to Red Springs to live. Her husband and the writer were classmates at Trinity College and close friends throughout the years, but our appointments in the Conference were not close enough for us to visit each other very often. So it was at Red Springs that the writer became better acquainted with Mrs. Blalock and her children. She had a quiet, gentle, and unassuming nature, always maintaining the even tenor of her ways. She was a good mother. She loved to work with children. It was with them that she did her best work. She did kindergarten work, and worked in the children's department of the Sunday school. She was active and in her usual health up until her last illness of three weeks.

MRS. MICHAEL BRADSHAW

By H. E. Myers

In the survey of missionary work of the women of North Carolina Conference in the years 1878 to 1928, Mrs. J. LeGrand Everett in Seven Times Seven reports the organization of "Christ's Jewels" in Tarboro in 1882. Mary Whitehurst, then only about thirteen years old, was one of those active in forming this organization for children; and after its establishment she was one of the leaders in its work. At this early age the essential commitments and interests of Mrs. Michael Bradshaw were evident: her love for and consecration to Christ; her concern for and devotion to children; and her capacity for and proficiency in teaching. In December 1949 one of the last activities in which she engaged was a Christmas party for children living near her home on South Duke Street in Durham. She knew all of them by name, and they knew and loved her; for each there had been provided a gift; and on it in her own hand the name of each child had been written. The Christmas carols, the loving greetings of children and their sincere good wishes for a happy Christmas made an almost perfect closing of the many programs she had prepared for children.

The years between June 6, 1866, and March 23, 1950, were marked by her own growth in character and in her enriching service. Her education was in a private school conducted by her sister in Tarboro. Following this, she attended Norfolk College, in Norfolk, Virginia. After her graduation from college she taught school in and around Tarboro, where she established and conducted a private school.

The contributions she made during these years of work in Tarboro and Edgecombe County were recognized some years ago in one of a series of articles published in The Southerner. The articles were tributes to the men and women whose lives "played an important part in the building of the town and country." Mrs. Bradshaw is described as one whose "work was responsible for an advancement in the development of the youth to such an extent that she can be classed as one of the great women of Edgecombe. Adults now living who were students of hers voice their appreciation and praise of her as a teacher. When there were no graded school, and when the public was small, this woman took the youth of Tarboro and shaped their minds, strengthened right principles in the virtuous, incited the selfish and the indifferent to good actions, and gave even the frivolous a love of sound learning so that many now living praise her and love her as a great teacher and a woman of true intelligence. Miss Mary (Mamie) Whitehurst was a wonderful teacher both in the day school and in the Sunday school and her work has continued to grow and no one can estimate the influence of her life as time goes on."

On April 7, 1897, Miss Mary Whitehurst married Michael Bradshaw, a former pastor of the Methodist church in Tarboro. To them were born five children. The oldest, Mary Whitehurst, died in infancy. Robert is a member of this Conference and is this year serving the First Methodist Church in Wilson, where his father was pastor 1911-1915. Michael Jr., is editor of the Toledo Blade, and lives in Toledo, Ohio. William is engaged in business, and lives in Durham. Margaret, who married William Donald Linton (now deceased), is engaged in secretarial work and lives in Washington, D. C.

These children give evidence proving the excellence of the home made for them in the parsonage. Not only was the parsonage a real home for them; it was also a home for many others. The Bradshaw family was given to hospitality, and with their hospitality they gave such riches as come only in constant communion with Christ. Thus, this hospitality was a mark of true Christian fellowship. Loving Christ, they loved people of all ages and stations. In conversation with Mrs. Bradshaw one was impressed with the large number of people whom she knew, whose careers she could recount, and in whom she was personally interested. Where she lived flowers and pretty shrubbery marked the place; and on the inside of the house all of all ages found such ministry as the gospel provides for any hour faced by the human spirit.

Her husband was a great preacher and truly "a good minister of Jesus Christ." To this net result, Mrs. Bradshaw made her contribution. They were really made one in marriage; and their separate inheritances and attainments were blended in a unit wherein one complemented the other. Their lives together were beautiful and inspiring, and they so lived and wrought in Christ and through Christ that all who came within the radius of their influence were blessed. As in her work as a mere child in forming and directing "Christ's Jewels" in her home town, Tarboro, Mrs. Bradshaw showed special gifts and interests; so through the years of partnership in the ministry with her husband, she continued to be most effective in work with children. Possibly no work in the Church gave her more joy than that of planning for and directing the children in carrying out a Children's Day program. On retirement of Dr. Bradshaw in 1930, they made their home on South Duke Street close to Duke Memorial Church where they had served in two pastorates. Here at Duke Memorial as in other pastorates, Mrs. Bradshaw had taught the Beginners' Class in Sunday school and had served with the children in the work of the "Missionary Society." Recognition of the effective work with children both at Duke Memorial and in other churches where she and her husband served was given at the May meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Duke Memorial Church. Mrs. A. M. Gates paid tribute to the fine contribution made by Mrs. Bradshaw in both life and service, and her name was placed on "The Memorial Roll" of the North Carolina Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Her husband, prior to his passing February 7, 1932, planned a service of worship for use at Duke Memorial church when his going Home should take place. This service was not the usual funeral service; rather, it was such a service as would be suitable for an hour of praise and thanksgiving for the believer's triumph in Christ. The family kept the copy of this service prepared by Dr. Bradshaw and written in his own hand. In life and work this devoted couple had been one; and for each of them, the termination of life in this sphere was a time for praise, thanksgiving and worship. So when Mrs. Bradshaw had triumphed through faith, this same service prepared for use by her husband when he passed was regarded as the most fitting that could be provided. Her pastor, Rev. Robert E. Brown, and the writer shared in the service. The body of this good woman was placed beside that of her husband in the family plot in Maplewood. For both of them, in life and in the hour of transition, their united spirits were one in the reverent declaration: "Thanks be unto God, who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

MRS. N. L. SEABOLT

By H. G. Cuthrell

Mrs. N. L. Seabolt, 79, of Maxton, N. C., completed her earthly pilgrimage April 30, 1950.

She was born Mary Rebecca Meacham in Richmond County, October 26, 1871. In 1889 she married Rev. N. L. Seabolt, a Methodist minister and member of the North Carolina Conference. Together they labored and served in the North Carolina Conference for 38 years, working faithfully together for the Kingdom of God in the following parishes of the Conference: El Dorado in Montgomery County; Hatteras; Grimesland; Milbrook; Jenkins Memorial, Raleigh; Rockingham Circuit; Candor; Lumberton Circuit; Troy Circuit; and Robbins.

As a wife and mother of the parsonage she lived a beautiful Christian life, loyal to her home, her church, her friends and her community. Modest and unassuming she was recognized for her spirit of friendliness and willingness to help all who were in need. The great love and inspiration of her life was the Methodist Church, and to the church she gave the utmost devotion and loving service. She was a woman of humility and practical compassion, always rejoicing in opportunities for service to God and humanity.

For the past few years her membership was in the Maxton and Troy Methodist Churches. She fought a good fight, and kept the faith for her Lord and church through many years of creative and sacrificial service.

Funeral service was conducted at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. C. Frostick of Maxton by Rev. H. G. Cuthrell, pastor of the Maxton Methodist Church, assisted by Rev. Forrest Young, pastor of the Maxton Baptist Church, and burial took place in the Maxton cemetery.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. F. C. Frostick, and Misses Louise and Ruth Seabolt; and four sons, J. G., J. R., N. M., and W. E. Seabolt.

MRS. M. D. HIX

By R. E. Brown

Mrs. Imogene Murdock Hix, widow of Rev. M. D. Hix, passed away in Durham, N. C., on June 10, 1950.

Mrs. Hix was born August 22, 1871, in Randolph County. Her parents were Alexander Gray Murdock and Dorcas Lassiter Murdock.

In October, 1889, she was married and went to live in Goldsboro where her husband began his first charge. Together they served in:

following charges—Goldsboro, Henderson, Gibson, Beaufort, Hertford, Mt. Gilead, Granville Circuit, Rose Hill-Wallace, Southport.

She is survived by the following children: Mrs. Imogene Ausbon, Miss Mary Hix, and Edwin J. Hix, of Durham, and David N. Hix of Oxford. She leaves also four grandchildren. Four sons preceded her in death: George M., Burkhead, Malcolm D., and Milton Rone.

June 12, 1950, at 11:00 o'clock in the church she loved so much friends and loved ones gathered for the funeral service of one of God's noblest Christians. It was more like a home going, and all those present seemed to hear the Master say, "Enter into the joy of thy Lord, thou hast been faithful," and we felt the joy of reunion with a beloved preacher husband and four sons who had gone on before—a glorious reunion with the Everlasting Arms of the Almighty about all in the Father's House. The minister was reading words from the ritual but the people present were hearing voices and heavenly music as the Master was tenderly whispering, Let not your heart be troubled, she is safe in my Father's House. Her sweet spirit lingers still in the hearts of her many friends and members of Duke Memorial church, who rise up and called her name blessed. When we turn again home we shall find her there, and dwell in the House of the Lord forever.

MRS. L. M. HALL

By Clyde G. McCarver

Anna Bryan Clement was born at Wallace, N. C., on March 7, 1888, the daughter of Professor Samuel W. Clement and Anna Bryan Clement. She received her formal education at Wallace High School, the University of North Carolina, Yale University, and Hartford Theological Seminary. On July 11, 1917, she was married to Rev. Leon M. Hall, with whom she served faithfully and effectively for the Kingdom of God for thirty-three years. She accompanied him during his tour of duty in two World Wars where he served as a chaplain of the United States Army.

Never desiring the place of honor, Mrs. Hall seemed to specialize in helping youth and young people to find a sympathetic adjustment to life. Yet her influence and witness was seen and felt in all the activities of the church. People of all walks of life came to her freely for advice and assistance, for she, like her Master, loved so completely that they felt at home in her presence. No problem was too menial or too large for her consideration. She was honored by being presented a Life Membership in the Woman's Society of Christian Service. Her full Christian life and spiritual contagion shall live as long as there is one person remaining who knew her.

God called Mrs. Hall to a larger service in His Heavenly Kingdom on July 9, 1950. She approached her new life "soothed and sustained by an unflinching trust . . . as one who wraps the draperies of his couch about him and lies down to pleasant dreams." Funeral services were conducted from Calvary Methodist Church in Durham, N. C., where her husband is minister. The services were conducted by Dr. E. L. Hillman, Rev. D. E. Earnhardt, and Rev. H. L. Davis. Mr. Earnhardt had served as "best man" at her wedding just thirty-three years prior. Many of that party were present for the funeral service.

It was very fitting that Mrs. Hall should have been laid to rest within sight of Duke University Chapel, where the lovely music of the carillon can be heard. She was always a lover of the fine, wholesome, and lovely things of life.

Because of the abundant life of Anna Clement Hall many are they who shall inherit the Kingdom of God.

MRS. EUGENIA COWARD PITTMAN

By M. T. Plyler

Mrs. Eugenia Coward Pittman died at her home at 213 Edwards Street, in Durham, Tuesday morning, October 10, 1950. Sick for several months, she passed away quietly in her sleep.

Mrs. Pittman married December 11, 1911, the late Rev. R. E. Pittman, for many years a minister in the North Carolina Conference. Possessing all the attributes that enter into the making of a preacher's wife, Mrs. Pittman played a major role in the successful ministry enjoyed by her husband for twenty-five years and with every move made by her husband their going brought genuine regret to the members of the church from which they were moving. The parsonage always maintained an open door policy and a friendly welcome greeted all who entered in.

The deceased was a native of Grifton. She was the daughter of the late A. G. and Nancy Stanley Coward. She lived the early years of her life in Grifton and with the entry of Mr. Pittman into the service of his church as pastor she began her life which carried her into numerous communities to live. After the death of her husband in 1936, while serving the Brooksdale circuit, Mrs. Pittman moved to Durham and into the house he had purchased for their occupancy upon his retirement from the active ministry. Soon after moving to Durham she joined Calvary Methodist Church where she was active in various phases of its program until her fatal illness.

Surviving are five daughters, Mrs. J. B. Frizzelle of Greene County, Mrs. A. T. Fields of Swansboro, and Miss Louise Delle Pittman, Mrs. Wyatt T. Dixon and Mrs. Watts Fowler of Durham; two sons, Levi M. Pittman of Green Belt, Md., and Francis Pittman of Kinston; five sisters, Mrs. J. H. Barwick, Mrs. G. T. Gardner, Mrs. R. C. McCotter, Mrs. Marvin Taylor and Mrs. L. O. Cox, all of Grifton; seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Having known both the Pittman and the Coward families from the days of my early ministry, it is a temptation of mine to indicate the rich Christian heritage that came to Rev. Robert E. Pittman and his devoted wife who was the inspiration of his life and work as a minister, but I forbear—her fine family remains to carry on through the following generations.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Hall-Wynne Funeral Chapel, with Rev. Leon M. Hall of Calvary church officiating, assisted by Rev. D. D. Holt, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church. Interment was made in the family plot in the new annex of Maplewood Cemetery in Durham.

MRS. JAMES W. SNEEDEN

By A. S. Parker

Mrs. Pearl Futrell Sneed, wife of Rev. James W. Sneed, reached the end of her earthly journey at West End, N. C., November 8, 1949, after a long and useful life of service in the Master's Kingdom.

She was born June 16, 1875, at Mount Olive, N. C., the daughter of Benjamin and Martha Futrell. She joined the Methodist Church at Mount Olive at 10 years of age. On September 4, 1895, she was married to James W. Sneed in the Mount Olive Methodist Church by her pastor, Rev. N. M. Journey. She and her husband lived in Kenansville for a number of years where he was court reporter and later established a commercial school. From Kenansville they went to Wilmington to live. During these years Mrs. Sneed was active in church work, teaching in Sunday school, serving as an officer in the Woman's Society of Christian Service and a leader in Christian activities of Trinity church in Wilmington.

Her husband joined the N. C. Conference in 1924, several years after their marriage. It was with a heart full of love for God and the good of His cause that she entered into the life of the Methodist parsonage and met the problems and hardships of the minister's wife with a smile and a will to do her best. The first charge they served was Kenansville, where they had lived for six years. Here they were graciously received and spent three happy and useful years.

She and her husband took their place in the North Carolina Conference and labored in such a way that the people whom they served were always devoted to their pastor's wife as well as appreciative of their pastor. She was a co-pastor, interested in all phases of church work, especially the shut-in and people in needy circumstances. She also took part in community activities such as PTA, Woman's Club, and civic betterment agencies. She was presented a life membership in the Woman's Society of Christian Service by the New Bern District Society. The charges in which she lived were: Kenansville, 3 years; Pantego-Belhaven, 2 years; Bath, 4 years; Aurora, 3 years; Wanchese, 6 years; Mebane, 1 year; North Henderson—White Memorial, 2 years; and West End, 4 years.

Mrs. Sneed cared little for the spectacular things of life, but spent her energies and talents in doing the things that counted for good to those about her.

She was confined to the house for about 11 months before her death; but throughout the period of her affliction she remained cheerful and her faith held steadfast.

Surviving are her husband and three children, J. Earl Sneed of Wilmington, N. C., Ben Sneed of Chicago, Ill., and Miss M. Elizabeth Sneed of Washington, D. C.; 11 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Sally Humphrey of Wilmington, N. C.

Funeral services were conducted from her husband's church at West End, N. C., by Rev. A. S. Parker, assisted by Rev. H. C. Smith and Rev. W. C. Ball. Her body was laid to rest in beautiful Oakdale Cemetery in Wilmington.

Sessions of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church

The North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church was composed of the North Carolina Conference of the former M. E. Church, South, and parts of the North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Protestant Church and the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church. The former Methodist Episcopal Church gave to the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church 9 preachers, 11 charges and 1,837 members; the former Methodist Protestant Church 23 preachers, 20 charges and 9,152 members; the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South, 273 preachers, 226 charges and 132,735 members.

NOTE: The Distributing Committee at the 1940 session of the Western North Carolina Conference added three retired ministers of the former Methodist Protestant Church to the roll of the North Carolina Conference. The names of these preachers should have been included in 1939 in the list of preachers coming into the North Carolina Conference from the former Methodist Protestant Church.
